

Over 600 At Lamonville Strawberry Festival

More than 600 attended the centennial strawberry festival at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Nauta, Lamonville, July 5. Mr. Bruce Burton accepts a sample from his mother-in-law while his wife looks on.

How's This For Precision?

Swiss clocks, donated by the Watch Industry of Switzerland, will keep the official time at Expo 67 in Montreal. Seventy clocks, and 12 clock towers, at prominent locations on the site, will be controlled by a master atomic clock having a precision of one-millionth of a second per day. It will not lose or gain more than one second in 3,000 years.

Lightning Strikes Buttonville Home

By JEAN LEAF
BUTTONVILLE — Storms have been destructive in the Buttonville area this season. On Dominion Day there was extensive damage at the Ken Stephenson home when lightning struck the cistern. The family's plans for a holiday weekend were spoiled also when Ken suffered burns as he removed the radiator cap while checking the car.

A lucky Toronto man who fell 15 feet at the construction site of Commercial & Home Builders Ltd. on Don Mills Road opposite Markham Sand and Gravel, suffered only a dislocated toe on his right foot.

John Konter, 36, of 88 Mulock Road, fell from a wall when a girder which was being lifted by a front end loader swung and hit him in the mouth.

Royalty in the flesh often falls far short of a child's dream, but apparently on her recent visit to Canada Queen Elizabeth met every requirement.

John Addison, Federal member for York-North, said last week that when Queen Juliana of the Netherlands was entertained recently at the family farm in King, his children were sadly disappointed — his son expected a crown, and his daughter was looking for wooden shoes. Juliana wore neither.

Mrs. Wm. Champion, Miss Mary Rodick, Mrs. James Rodick, Miss E. French, Mrs. A. W. Miller, Miss Della Stephenson, Mrs. Earl Empringham and Mrs. F. Leaf.

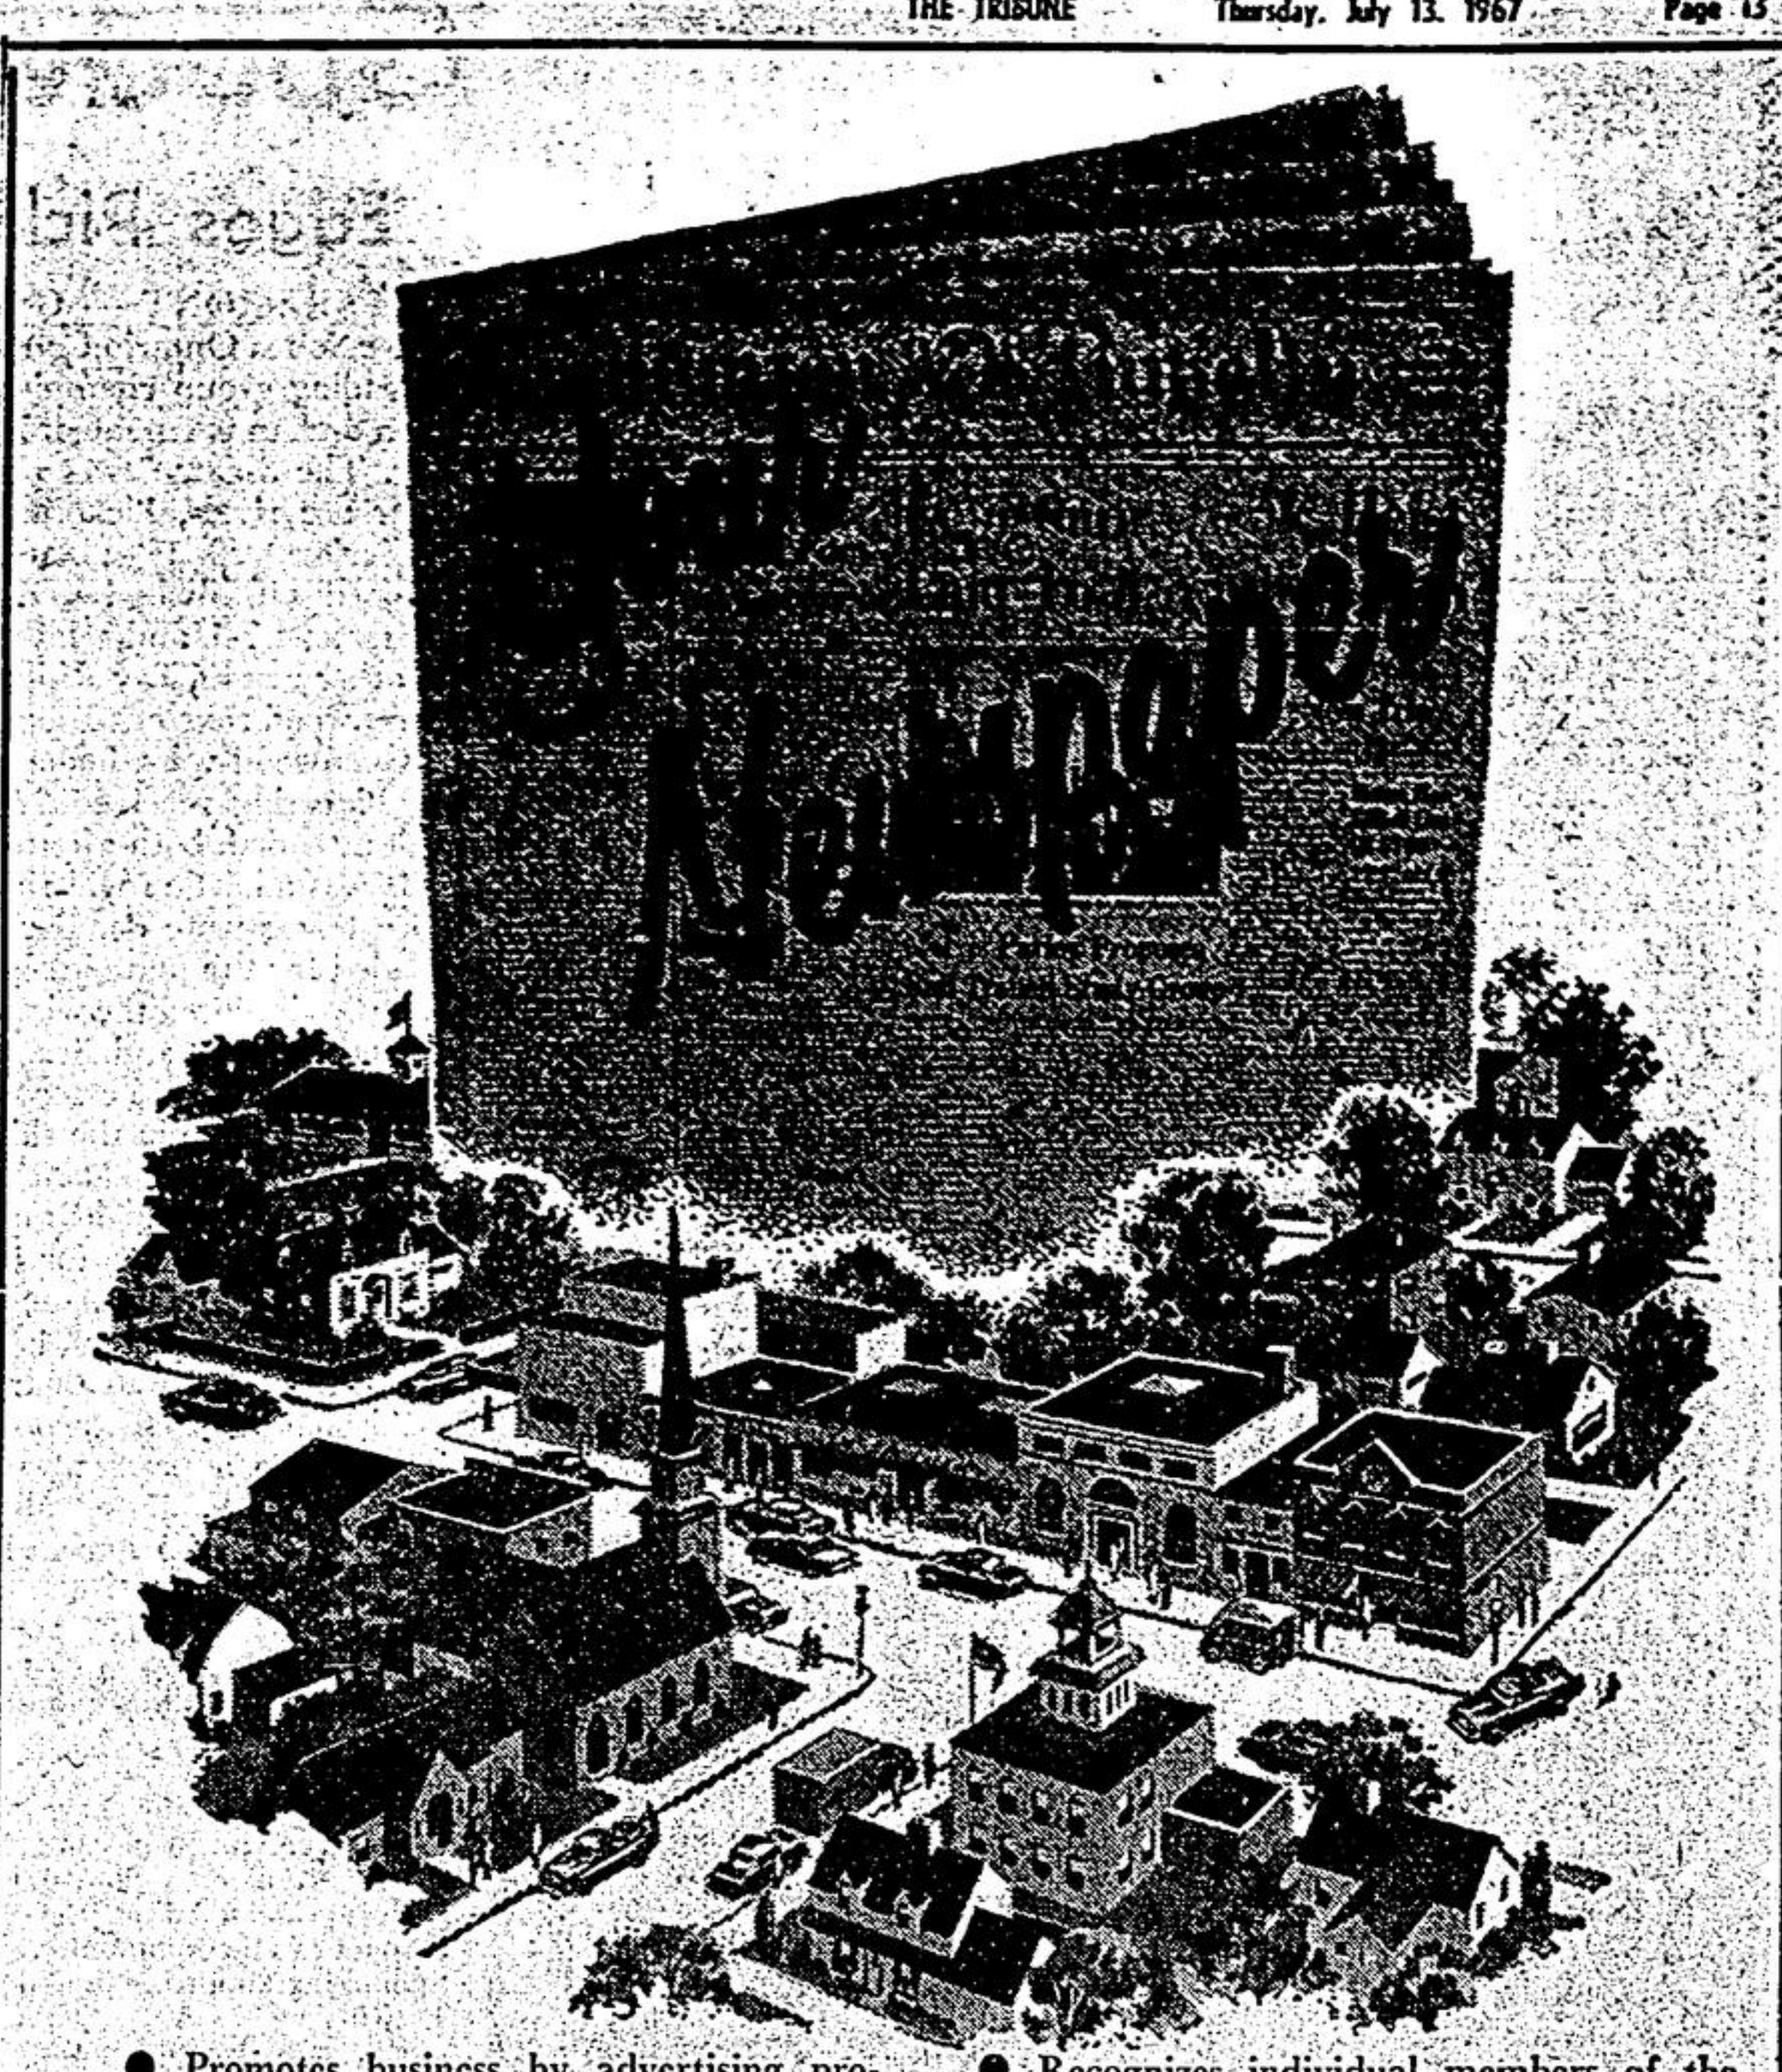

Mrs. George Hooper and Mrs. Clayton Jones set off early Sunday morning for Expo with members of the York Choraliers, for a singing engagement at the Fair.

Mrs. S. J. English is vacationing at Severn River this week.

Annual Recital Successful

The annual recital presented by pupils of Mrs. Clayton, Mrs. Don Reesor and Mrs. S. J. English was a delight to parents and audience again this year.

Mrs. Joy Crawford was the official accompanist for the opening and closing of the program, and in between there were selections by Kirby Parson, Christina Craigie, Alan Reeve, Steven Watford, Leslie Hood, Richard Calvert, Connie Wood, Gayle Jones, Chris Hood, Bernd Gerber, Kathie Brown, Matthew Watford, Regina Allen, Cheryl Tennyson, Barbara Martin, Helen Fowler, Connie Reeve, Barbara Martin, Donna Ryan, Alanna Martin, Heather Wait, Irene Craigie, Susan Tennyson, Margaret Empringham, Linda Sanderson, Paul Craigie, Sharon Buchanan, Gloria Lee, Cathie Sanderson, Melanie Watt, Paul Steffler and solos by Mrs. George Hooper and Mrs. Clayton Jones.
