Portrait Of A Teenager

STOUFFVILLE — When eighteen year old Sally Thomas walks down the Main Street of Stouffville, all eyes turn. It matters not if she's wearing a casual blouse and blue jeans on a Sunday afternoon or a party dress on Saturday night, she automatically attracts attention. Why?

Sally's main attribute is her neatness. Everything she wears, she wears well. Stouffville or even Canada cannot take pride in claiming this pert 5' 2" brunette as a native. She's from Narberth, Pembrokeshire, Wales. A distinctive accent gives her away.

Sally and her family, that includes two brothers and two sisters, left their homeland aboard the Empress of England, four years ago. They resided for a time in Montreal, then came to Stouffville in 1965. David, 20, is in the Royal Canadian Navy; Mandy, 11, Wendy, 9 and Barry, 6 are all pupils in Orchard Park School. Sally is a full-time clerk in the Village Shop, Main Street, West.

Sally admits that to begin a new life in a new land was quite an experience. "I get a little homesick sometimes and would like to return, but not to stay. I think Canada is a beautiful country."

SCHOOL ADJUSTMENT DIFFICULT

Sally attended high school in Stouffville for one year but found it difficult to adjust. "Here, a student is expected to work more on his own. I wasn't used to that. I found it hard." She enjoys her job at the Village Shop, operated by Mrs. Lloyd Weldon. "Many of the girls that come in are my own age, I like waiting on them." She admits that new stock and new styles can sometimes prove tempting. Her own wardrobe is an excellent advertisement for her place of employment since she models her clothes well.

Sally has no steady boyfriend but a host of good friends. She enjoys playing tennis, bowling and riding horseback. The Weldon family have several riding horses on their home property, north-east of town.

In Wales, cricket and soccer are two of the most popular spectator sports, comparable to hockey in Canada and baseball in the United States.

How do teenagers compare? Sally feels that there is very little difference. If anything, a teen girl in Canada enjoys a little more freedom than in Wales. "I don't think that parents here are quite as strict," she said.

Sally's desire is to some day return to Narberth, Pembrokeshire, Wales when she saves up sufficient funds to make the trip. We can only hope that she makes it a two-way ticket — one to go and one to come back.

Marlene Malloy, June Bride In United Church Ceremony

STOUFFVILLE — Stouffville United Church was the setting for a pretty summer wedding on Friday, June 30 at 7 o'clock, when Marlene Earla, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Malloy, Stouffville, became the bride of James Edward Macdonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Macdonald, Richmond Hill. Rev. Alan Borland officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, looked lovely in a gown of Crystal Peau de Soie over taffeta with Chantilly lace bodice and long sleeves. The matching lace train fell from the waist. Her shoulder-length tulle veil was held in place by a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a Cascade bouquet of pink sweetheart rosebuds, carnations, lilies of the valley and ivy leaves.

The matron of honor, Betty-Ann Chambers, Downsview, cousin of the bride, and the bridesmaids, Yvette and Marianne Malloy, Stouffville, sisters of the bride and Leah Macdonald, Richmond Hill, sister of the groom, all wore Capri blue floor-length gowns of chiffon over taffeta banded with matching peau de soie with lace bodice and elbow length sleeves. They wore matching head-pieces trimmed with seed pearls. They carried cascade bouquets of Flamingo-pink carnations.

Mr. Walter Austin, Unionville, was the best man. The ushers were Larry Malloy, Willowdale, Ken Boone, Downsview and Wayne Stafford, Willowdale. All men in the bridal party wore white jackets and black trousers and boutonnieres of white carnations.

The soloist, Mr. Lorne Boardway, Stouffville, sang the Wedding Prayer and O Perfect Love.

The wedding reception was held at the Legion Hall where the bride's mother received, wearing a dress of yellow and white lace over yellow taffeta with yellow accessories, and a corsage of Taliiman rosebuds and carnations. The groom's mother chose blue chiffon over taffeta with matching hat, and a corsage of white carnations and pink rosebuds.

The bride's going-away costume was a two-piece mauve coat over mauve and blue printed sheer with white accessories, and a corsage of white carnations and lilies of the valley. After a short honeymoon in Northern Ontario, they will reside at Newmarket.

The flowers at the church and reception hall were baskets of pale pink carnations and snapdragons.

Mr. David Crosier, Stouffville, grandfather of the bride was present for the wedding. A telegram of congratulations was received from Mr. E. Anthony, grandfather of the groom, presently visiting in Middleborough, England.

Guests were present from Sudbury, Pennsylvania, Severn Bridge, Brampton and Sunderland.
