Lovely August Bride

STOUFFVILLE — Second Markham Baptist Church was decorated with baskets of gladioli, gloriosa, daisies and gypsophila for the wedding of Lois Marguerite Hutchinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Hutchinson, and Robin Anthony Dunham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Dunham, Milliken, on Saturday, August 5. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Bruce Hisey.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride looked lovely in a semi-fitted floor length A-line dress of white peau de soie with yoke and bell sleeves of scalloped alconian lace, a softly pleated lace train fell from the yoke of her dress. Her shoulder length veil of silk tulle fell from a crown of pearls and she carried a surbust of white miniature carnations and variegated talisman carnations.

Bridesmaids, Mrs. David

Rogers of Toronto, Miss Kathy Hutchinson, R.R. 2 Stouffville, and Miss Susan Dunham of Milliken wore A-line floor length dresses of orange ice shantung with scooped necklines. They carried white baskets of shasta daisy, talisman roses, gypsophila and trailing myrtle. Miss Joyce Hutchinson was junior bridesmaid and Miss Elaine Hutchinson was the flower girl. They were dressed similar to the bridesmaids and carried baskets of flowers.

Mrs. Ronald Carter, R.R. 4 Stouffville, was the organist and she accompanied the soloist, Mrs. James Oldham, aunt of the bride, who sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Saviour Like a Shepherd Lead Them."

Mr. Bruce Lee of Toronto was best man and the ushers were Ronald Hutchinson and Graham Milne of Willowdale. The wedding reception was held at Parkside Youth Centre where the bride's mother received her guests in a two piece, dress and jacket of mint brocade and a corsage of yellow sweetheart roses. The groom's mother chose a two-piece suit of turquoise embroidered linen with a pink sweetheart rose corsage. The master of ceremonies was the bride's uncle, Mr. Merlyn Baker and the bride's grandfather, Mr. Morgan Baker of King City proposed the toast to the bride.

For a honeymoon spent at Expo, Quebec City and points east, the bride wore a peacock blue crepe A-line dress with hat to match and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses and pale blue carnations.

They are residing in St. Catharines. Wedding guests were present from Montreal, Winnipeg, Toronto, Milliken, King City, Willowdale and surrounding area.

DEAR DORIS

DEAR DORIS — Just a contribution to your records about older people doing big jobs:

In our town there is a Senior Service, staffed by retired people for the help of less-able older persons. One woman in her 70's is a visitor.

She tells about calling on a lone male of 82 who is nearly blind but still in his own rooms. She brings in his groceries, cleans up the place.

Then she cleans him up when she hinted he might like help with his bath, he was pathetically grateful and accepting. The operation was beyond him alone, what with his stiff legs and his poor sight.

She is an angel of mercy for several homebound loners.

DEAR BETTY — Thank you. With help like this, many elderly people can manage in their own homes. And the idea is catching, hold.

DEAR DORIS — My husband rejected our fourth child right away — this would always be an unwanted child like he was himself. He kept saying this all during the pregnancy. We just fell apart, although we had always been very close.

He also wanted me to have a sterilization operation, which I had done right after the baby was born, so we cannot have any more children. Now I have found out that he has lived a double life with our church soloist. This went on all during the pregnancy.

I told our minister that the rejection of our child has hurt me more than his unfaithfulness. He cannot understand this. I see our children as a gift from God.

Rejected Too DEAR REJECTED — In my book he is the unnatural one. Yet there is a subtle difference in our approach here to infidelity: whereas some European cultures can wink at this while they turn things inside out to provide happiness for their children, bless 'em!

I'd guess the new attachment won't last either. Counselling might still bring hope. For the children's sake, try it.
