Mr. And Mrs. Robert A. Peters Honeymoon In Western Canada

AGINCOURT — On Saturday, July 15, 1967, at St. Timothy's Anglican Church in Agincourt, Patricia Louise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh A. Allison became the bride of Robert A. Peters, son of Mrs. Julia Peters and the late William Peters of Hamilton.

The wedding ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. Bonis. The soloist, Mr. Gerald Kileeg, sang "The Wedding Hymn" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride looked lovely in a traditional white peau de soie, A-line dress with an empire waist, lily-point sleeves and rounded neckline. The dress was enhanced with a flowing, scalloped train which fell from the shoulders of the dress. The dress was trimmed with lace applique and seed pearls, while the train was edged with matching lace. The shoulder-length face veil was attached to a headpiece of tiny white flowers. The bride carried a cascade of red roses and white chrysanthemums and stephanotis.

Maid of Honour was Miss Geraldine Allison, sister of the bride. The bride's attendants were Mrs. Carol Penny, and Mrs. Carol Jackson. The bride's attendants wore matching pink shantung floor length dresses featuring bell sleeves and an A-line shape. They carried nosegays of pink and white carnations and chrysanthemums.

Following the wedding, a reception and dance were held at Morgan Hall. For receiving the guests, the bride's mother chose a dress-coat ensemble of patterned silk with a chiffon overlay. The turquoise ensemble featured a matching hat and was trimmed with a corsage of orange carnations. She was assisted by the groom's mother, wearing a pale blue dress with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

Leaving on a honeymoon trip to Western Canada, the bride wore a tangerine, coloured wool ensemble with white accessories and a white gardenia corsage. On their return, the couple will reside in Scarborough.

Tate — Paynter Wedding

ORANGEVILLE — Westminster United Church, Orangeville, was decorated with white and yellow mums on Saturday, July 22, for the marriage of Connie Lorraine Tate, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Tate, Orangeville, to Garry John Paynter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Paynter, Elliot Lake, Ontario. Rev. Ralph LeDrew was the officiating clergyman.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white peau de soie and chantilly lace. Her train flowed from her empire waist band and was of peau de soie and chantilly lace. Her head-dress was a large white rose with short veil. She carried red roses and stephanotis.

The maid of honour was

Miss Carol Hoover, Markham, cousin of the bride.

The bridesmaids were Miss Pat Merlina and Miss Betty Locker, Orangeville. Junior bridesmaid was Miss Donna Gadois, Geraldton, Ontario, cousin of the groom. They were gowned in floor length candy coral peau de soie and chiffon, with small matching headresses, and carried cascade bouquets of yellow mums.

Edward Paynter, Elliot Lake, brother of the groom, was best man. The ushers were Jack Davidson Orangeville, Charles Gerster, Lindsay, cousin of the bride, and Terry Abraham, Elliot Lake, cousin of the groom.

For the reception at the Legion Hall, Orangeville, the bride's mother received her guests in a teal blue silk and lace dress with matching shoes and hat. She was assisted by the groom's mother, who wore a white gardenia corsage. Both mothers wore corsages of white gardenias.

For a honeymoon to the United States and points

Johnson of Grimsby sang "The Wedding Prayer" and "O Perfect Love."

The reception was held at the Estaminet. For the wedding trip to Nassau, the bride chose an ensemble of a brown and white organza coat over a matching sleeveless sheath, lined with brown taffeta, a brown hat, white accessories and a corsage of orange roses. They are making their home at 30 Speers Road, Apt. 406, Oakville.

Married At Oakville

OAKVILLE — Calvary Baptist Church, Oakville, was decorated with standards of white and mauve mums and pink carnations for the wedding of Nancy Elaine Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Brown, 1400 Hixon St., Oakville, and Jeffrey Alexander Skinner, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Vincent Skinner of Burlington, at 3 p.m. July 29, 1967. The officiating minister was Rev. A. Crawford.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white organza over taffeta, with scooped neckline and short lace sleeves, with a softly fitted bodice. The skirt was A-line and applied with chantilly lace in a two-foot depth. Her seven-foot train detached from shoulder bows and was applied in the same style.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Donald Pickering of Oakville, bridesmaids, Susan and Bonnie Brown, and junior bridesmaid Shelly Brown, sisters of the bride, wore pink chiffon over taffeta with the empire waistline. The short sleeves were applied with pink flowered motifs and chiffon panels fell from the shoulders. They wore headpieces of pink sweetheart roses and white pinocchio mums and carried nosegays of white mums, pink carnations and pink delight roses.

The best man was Mr. Joe Clark of Windsor. The ushers were John Skinner and Jim Skinner, brothers of the groom, and Eric Poole, all of Burlington. The wedding music was played by Mrs. Hugh Brearley of Oakville, and the soloist, Mrs. Robert
