Goodwood Boys Do Well In Playoffs

GOODWOOD—The Goodwood B.P.'s playing in the Uxbridge League playoff series lost their third game to Comco at Uxbridge, Aug. 21, but they managed to keep their hopes alive, when they came back with some fine ball on Wednesday, Aug. 23, beating the Comco team 1-0. The run coming in the last innings with Ted Meyers crossing the plate.

In the kids league the Goodwood squirts won the second game of their second series, after losing the first to Cartwright at Nestleton on Tuesday evening. A third game will be required to decide the winner of the round.

Arm In Sling; Pleads Guilty

STOUFFVILLE — Bruno Joannette, 21, of R.R. 1 Unionville, whose left arm was almost severed June 16 in a collision on the 9th concession south of Stouffville pleaded guilty to a careless driving charge and a second charge of driving without a license, when he appeared before Magistrate Pearce at Richmond Hill court last week. A third charge was withdrawn by the crown.

William Brown, 21, Victoria St., Stouffville, testified under protection of the Canada Evidence Act. He said he was driving south on the 9th concession when he saw a car coming north at a high rate of speed "kicking up a dust." He had to pull over as far to the right as he could on the shoulderless road, and slowed right down as he did not want to get his car hit with flying stones.

The first car went by, then one or two lengths behind, another car came in a cloud about the same speed.

The second car, driven by Joannette, sideswiped the Brown's car and damaged the left front of the vehicle. Joannette's arm, which was out over the door was almost severed. Brown was not injured.

Joannette was convicted for careless driving and was fined $35 plus costs or 7 days. On the charge of driving without a license he was fined $20 and costs or four days. Magistrate Pearce declared that the man was not to hold a licence for three months.

Farewell Party

By ELSIE DUNKELD. ATHA — A farewell party was held at the Community centre on Saturday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jensen and Mr. and Mrs. Don Meyers. The Jensens are moving this weekend near London.

Provincial Playoffs

BROUGHAM — Only teams still in the running for an Ont. title are Greenwood Squirrels and Greenwood Intermediates after two weeks of playoff competition.

Goodwood lost out to Rockwood on Tuesday night at Rockwood, they were swamped 8-0, losing the series two games to one.

Greenwood Squirrels won their second series against Glen William and now have a bye in the next round.

Water Show

STOUFFVILLE — Although the weather was cool, hundreds turned out to see Stouffville's water show at the community pool on Tuesday evening. The young swimmers put on a great show, and they are to be congratulated for their fine performance.

The crowd, many wrapped in blankets against the cool wind, were kept amused by the antics of the clowns and the dress race between the Lions and Kinsmen.

Water ballet, water polo, diving were all part of the show and the final touch came with a torch light parade by all swimmers.

IGA Draw Port

STOUFFVILLE — Stouffville I.G.A. who completed their league schedule without a loss, have drawn Port Perry in the semi-finals of the playoffs.

The first game of the 3 out of 5 series was cancelled owing to rain on Sunday. Play will resume at Port Perry on Wednesday evening. This Sunday the series will return to Stouffville, game time 2 p.m. If a double header can be arranged the starting time will be 1 p.m.

Greenwood Intermediates advance into the next round and have drawn Doo.

In County fast ball playoffs Pickering lead West Rouge 3 games to one with one tied. In the other series between Goodwood and Clarendon play will be resumed this week with games being played at Clarendon on Tuesday and Thursday evenings.
