FOUR CAR PILEUP

LOCUST HILL — A Locust Hill woman was among ten persons injured in a serious 4-car pile-up on Yonge Street at Bradford, Saturday, seven requiring treatment in hospital. Marguerite Matson, 52, of Locust Hill, was the driver of one auto that was in collision with vehicles driven by Kenneth Widdfield, 25 and Jacqueline Thomsen (alleged) 31, both of Newmarket. Total damage was estimated at $3,500.

Appropriate music for the occasion was provided by a mixed school choir of 70 voices, led by Principal Lorne Boardway. —Staff Photo.
