Markham Juniors Hit Win Column

MARKHAM — Markham Jrs. broke into the win column in convincing fashion, Friday with a 5-1 victory over Whitby on Markham ice. It snapped a three-game losing streak for the Seal-A-Wax squad.

On Sunday at Aurora, they held a 5-2 lead but had to settle for a 5-5 tie as the homesters rallied with three tallies in the third period.

Against Whitby, the contest was only 20 seconds old when Steve Johnson of Markham, fired a shot through a maze of legs to put his team out front. Dan Maloney made it 2-0 on a perfect set-up pass from Jim Barden.

In the second period, Don Caley rifled the puck past Gary Hunt in the Whitby cage to put Markham three ahead. Alan Young made it 4-0, deflecting a shot by defenceman Brad Davidson.

Tom Simpson, a 14 year old Midget performer from Bowmanville, spoiled Bob Smith's shutout bid with Whitby's lone marker. Harry Sems sewed up the Markham victory in the dying minutes of the game.

The first and third periods had plenty of action but the middle frame lacked the excitement of the other two. It did, however, feature a boxing deal between McCord of Whitby and Rick Donnelly of Markham. Both were handed majors.

At Aurora, Sunday, the Markham marksmen were Steve Johnson, Rick Donnelly, Allan Young, Glenn McIlveen and Harry Sems. This Friday, at Markham, St. Michael's will be the visitors. Game time is 8:30 p.m.
