Former Greenwood Storekeeper

By MAY BROWN
 The sympathy of the community is extended to Mr. Charles McTaggart in the loss of his brother, John, of Kendal, Ontario. The late McTaggart was a former storekeeper in Greenwood and will be remembered by many residents here.
 Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Pascoe and Mr. and Mrs. Ken Brooks and family visited Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Thomas and family, Stouffville.
 The Kinsale Women's Institute met at the community hall at Kinsale. The topic under discussion was the aims and work in the Institute in the past and its advantages and help for the woman of today. The conclusion reached was that the program and the aims are still very worthwhile.
 Rev. T. H. Fleethar spent last week with friends in Montreal and attended Expo.
 Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Perkin of Oshawa and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Perkin of Saskatchewan visited with their nephew, Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Perkin.
 Mrs. Price of New Brunswick spent some time with Mr. and Mrs. Don Clarke and family while recovering from a broken ankle.
 Nelson Cole is making an addition to his home.
 The general meeting of the U.C.W. was held at the church on Thursday evening. Mrs. Mary MacLean and Mrs. Milton Pegg led in the worship. Mrs. Douglas Morden conducted the business.
 Mr. and Mrs. Percy Middleton of Buffalo visited with Mr. and Mrs. Herb Middleton and family.
 Mr. and Mrs. Benge of Sudbury spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Charles McTaggart.

TRIED AND FAILED: Five-year-old April Saar attempted the impossible... and naturally, she failed. This young Miss from Pembroke, Ontario, made the mistake of trying to do three things at once: watch a parade, eat an ice cream cone, and hold her pet kitten. The parade she watched while holding her kitty, but eating the cone, well, there was this problem about... —TNS Photo
