Surprise Visitor From P.E.I.

By Anne Loney

CLAREMONT — When Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morley entered the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Morley of Stouffville, to have dinner with them Sunday afternoon of last week, they couldn't believe their eyes when they saw their daughter, Mrs. Harvey MacLean, sitting in the living room. They had no idea that she was any nearer to them than her home in Clyde River, P.E.I.

Mrs. MacLean, it seems, decided to pay a short visit to her family. She advised her brother, Wilfred, of her intention and asked him to keep it a surprise for their parents.

Wilfred met his sister at the train at Oshawa and it was, indeed, a surprised and happy week for them all. They visited at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Morley, Waterloo, and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Morley, Brantford, before Mrs. MacLean's departure Friday evening for her home in the Maritimes.

The second grandson of Mr. and Mrs. James Peddie died of a virus infection in Ajax General Hospital Saturday, Nov. 4. A private funeral was held Tuesday, November 7, with interment in Claremont Cemetery. The pallbearers were Jack Redshaw, Jimmy Couch, Earl Wright and Alan MacEwen. The baby, born August 5, 1967, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Peddie, Dunbarton, was christened there on Sunday, Oct. 29, by Rev. Charles Dymond of the Anglican Church on the Hill. Given the name, Scott Adam Charles, his godparents were his uncle, Fred Peddie of Claremont, and Miss Joan Thew of Toronto.

The setting for the bazaar and tea held by the combined units of the U.C.W. on Saturday was a Pioneer Winter Fair, highlighted by a display of quilts and an antique table displaying various antique objects.

It was in charge of Mrs. Frank Carson. The bazaar was opened by Mrs. A. E. Cresswell and the guests were welcomed by the president, Mrs. Earl Anderson. Serving at tea were Mrs. Earle Cook, Mrs. Glen Evans, Mrs. Bob Madill, Mrs. Raymond Stickwood and Mrs. Olive Vine, all in their Centennial costumes. Carrying out the Centennial theme still further, were old flatirons and vases of mixed mums decorating the tea tables.

A wide variety of goods were on sale. The different counters and their attendants were: Candy, Mrs. Lloyd Pugh and Mrs. Eva Towner; Home Baking, Mrs. Ellis Britton, Mrs. MacMiddleton, Mrs. Norris Hardy and Mrs. Dick Ward; Jams and Jellies, Mrs. Mait Anderson and Mrs. Rose Vidler; Cosmetics, Mrs. Earle Pilkey and Mrs. Edgar Evans; Dry Goods, Mrs. Roy Timms and Miss Florence MacLennan; Aprons, Mrs. Gordon Gauslin, Mrs. Grant Taylor and Mrs. Ross Middleton; Kiddie Corner, Mrs. D. WE STARTED IN 1927 — WE'RE 40 YEARS YOUNG!

... But old enough to understand the soundness of time-tested basic ideas, but young enough to keep trying to improve them.

Modernization and keeping abreast of new ideas and techniques is a must for today's successful business. We wouldn't be one of Canada's largest food retailers if we weren't constantly thinking modern, thinking young.

But some basic thinking never changes. We are dedicated to bringing the most good food, to the most people, for the least amount of money. To being fair, honest and trustworthy. To caring about the people we serve.

No matter how progressive, how automated, how modern we become, we pledge to maintain these sound principles. Even when we're 100 years young!
