Lucy May Topham

Town Senior Resident

STOUFFVILLE—Stouffville lost one of its most active senior citizens Saturday in the death of Mrs. Lucy May Topham in her 91st year. She passed away at her home on Mill Street following a brief illness.

Mrs. Topham was born at Lincolnville, the daughter of the late James and Phoebe Hamill. Her husband predeceased her 36 years ago.

Mrs. Topham moved to Stouffville from Melville in 1938. While able, she was an enthusiastic worker and member in the Women's Association and later the U.C.W. of the United Church.

Surviving is one son, Stanley of Toronto and four daughters, Clarissa (Mrs. Harley Overbaugh) of Simcoe; Emily (Mrs. Ken Stots) R.R.2 Gormley; Blanche (Mrs. Earl Cook) and Vera (Mrs. Stanley Clarkson) both of Stouffville R.R.4. There are 11 grandchildren and 16 great grandchildren.

Service was held in the L. E. O'Neill Funeral Home on Monday at 2 p.m. conducted by Rev. Douglas Davis, with interment in Stouffville Cemetery. The pall bearers were all grandsons, Milford Stots, Bill Topham, Keith Overbaugh, Ray Cook, Bob Clarkson and Murray Clarkson.

70th Birthday

By Mrs. Cliff Burkholder BETHESDA — Congratulations to William Paisley who celebrated his 70th birthday Saturday, Dec. 16. Mr. and Mrs. David Paisley held a family party at their home in honour of their father.

Sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. William Paisley in the passing of her brother, Harry Kirk. Mrs. J. Olszenski had the misfortune to break her ankle.

White Gift Service

By Jean Leaf BUTTENVILLE — It was a beautiful White Gift service at Brown's Corners Church. Lighted Christmas trees and wreaths brightened the chancel and formed a setting for the creche where children placed their gifts.

Mr. Garnet Stewart and Mr. Bruce Armstrong were in charge of the service, while Carolyn Copp told the children's story and the C.G.I.T. and Junior Choirs sang an anthem "Long, Long Ago" with music by Mrs. Clayton Jones. Mrs. Don Reesor was at the organ and Mrs. George Hooper was soloist when the Senior choir sang "Birthday of a King." Brian Stiver lit the Advent Candles and David Bishop portrayed Pedro, when

Rev. Christopher Dugan told the story of "The Gift of Love." On Christmas Sunday there will be special music and carol singing at the 11 a.m. service. Friends were sorry to learn Saturday of the death of Mrs. Kenneth Stot's mother, Mrs. Lucy Topham of Stouffville. On Friday evening, Dec. 15, The Messengers entertained in the Christian Education room. Mrs. Russell Boyington has been under the doctor's care with a case of double pneumonia.

With fond hopes that all your holiday dreams come true, we send you our best wishes for a Merry Christmas.
