Brown's Corners Church

Services To Remember

By JEAN LEAF
BUTTONVILLE — Three events which made the season a beautiful one at Brown's Corners Church were the CGIT Candle-light Vesper service on the evening of December 17, with the Explorers participating; the Christmas concert on December 18 and the thrill of a visit from Santa Claus; and the Christmas Service December 24, with the Junior, CGIT and Senior Choirs singing special music and a Christmas message from Rev. Christopher Dugan. "Let's Keep Christmas," Mrs. Don Reesor was at the organ; Mrs. Clayton Jones sang "The Holy Boy," and Mary Lyn Snider was the Advent Candelighter.

Over the weekend there were family parties celebrating the season.

On Christmas Eve Mrs. John Brown entertained at the farmhouse which has been the family home for more than a hundred years. Gordon Brown is home from the University of Guelph for the holidays and other guests included the Douglas Hood family of Markham.

Mrs. Russell Boyington has recovered from a bout of pneumonia so she and her husband joined the Kelly family party with Dr. and Mrs. George Kelly of Buttonville at the home of Dr. and Mrs. George Kelly, in Newmarket.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Stots were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Milford Stots and their family at Don Mills; and the George Oaks family joined their daughter Janet Snider and her family for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Miller were breakfast guests at the home of their son, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Miller, Markham; and later in the day joined the Paul Mingay family party for dinner.

On Christmas Eve Mr. and Mrs. Miller entertained at a buffet supper, and guests were the Watsons and the Leafs.

Mrs. S. J. English was with Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Gray in Toronto over Christmas; and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Cox entertained guests, among them Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Robinson; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Robinson and family; and Mrs. Cora McDowell.

Miss Mary and Mr. Jack Rodick entertained Dec. 23, for Rodick relatives and the Harper family of Bolton; on Christmas Day the John Rodicks of Toronto were at home, and Mrs. Wm. Rodick and Miss Grace Rodick spent the day with them.

The Bishop family had it quiet this year. Mrs. Bishop and Randy were recuperating from the flu, and their guests were Mrs. Bishop's parents and Mr. Bishop's father.

We are sorry to learn of the death of Mrs. Bill Allen's brother just before Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. George Clarke who moved recently to 33 Allandale Avenue in Markham are enjoying their new home. Mr. Clarke celebrated his 82nd birthday last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Boyington moved recently from their home on No. 7 Highway at Don Mills Rd., and are now on Robinson St., Markham.

Santa Claus brought the Bill Hood family a new Ski-doo for Christmas and the boys had a field day trying it out on the hills and hollows of the valley behind their home.

Dr. and Mrs. A. F. Binnington are settled in their winter quarters at 35 Thorncliffe Park Drive, Apt. 209. Their telephone is 422-1552.
