'The Magic That'

A (Marvello)us Children's Show

STOUFFVILLE — The three time performance of Marvello and the Magic That was held in the auditorium of Stouffville District Secondary School on Thursday and Saturday evenings and Saturday afternoon.

The main purpose of the holiday show was to entertain the children. The kids enjoyed every minute of it.

The rather sparse attendance at night was more than compensated for by a crowd of close to 400 at the Saturday matinee. The script was written by Stouffville's own Sheila McLeod. She also directed the show, assisted by Jean Harroff. The producer was Mary Harris.

Frank Steele as Marvello, scored another success.

He was ably supported by Frank Barker as Spangle the Clown and Frank Mellon as Oswald the Orange Rabbit. Ed Wideman, whose vocal talent is finally gaining the prominence it deserves, was teamed with Jean Hammond. Their duet was a feature of the entire performance. The response from the audience indicated a desire for more of the same in the future.

The costumes were most colorful and the young dancers were excellent. Choreographer, Mollie Mumford deserves much credit since her rehearsals were plagued by absences and illness. In two groups, last minute replacements were necessary. Director, Sheila McLeod filled in as a harem dancer along with Toni Harding but any lack of practice was not noticeable.

Back-stage assistants included: Janet McBride, Grant Barkey, Earl Reesor, Gina Lindop and Ruth Dedlow.

It is the second children's Christmas show presented by the Stouffville Players. A third performance is already planned for December, 1968.

Christmas Party

The ladies from the Heaton Home, Church Street, were entertained at a very pleasant Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Ronald Mercer, Rupert Avenue. They sang carols, were served tea and each received a gift. Assisting Mrs. Mercer were: Mrs. Alan Borland, Mrs. Douglas Bacon and Mrs. William Duxbury.
