74 minute penalty parade

BOBCAYGEON — The official scorer ran out of writing room on the score sheet at Bobcaygeon Saturday. The shortage of space was not in the department reserved for goals and assists. It was in the section for individual listings of penalties. It was filled to overflowing and so was the penalty box most of the night.

A total of 74 minutes was served, including 30 minutes in majors for fighting.

Although both clubs were even-steven in the penalty parade, thirteen apiece, Bobcaygeon was tops in scoring goals by 5-2.

The first period was a rather tame affair with only four penalties called. In the second, the pace was stepped up with ten. Included in this number were majors to Jody Holden and Dan Pettit of Stouffville and Dale Junkin of Bobcaygeon.

The final frame saw 14 more added to the total. In addition to twelve minors, Randy Masales of the homesters and Wolfgang Schlobms of the Clippers hooked up in the game's second fistic encounter. Schlobms was banished with a major and minor. Masales drew a major.

Pete Turner and Tom Goslin hit the target for Stouffville. Dave Ferguson, Jody Holden and Dave Boyd drew assists. Roly Nichols potted a pair for the winners.

Maintains mid-winter vigil in park

Last week The Tribune paid a visit to the Bruce Mill Conservation Area in Markham Township. It was late in the afternoon and the only sign of humanity was one huge snowman near the edge of the bush. Soon he too will disappear but his absence will never be missed as visitors begin their return for the spring and summer seasons. —Staff Photo
