

Seek school for retarded children
 A committee, representing the Thornhaven School for Retarded Children, will seek permission from the board of Markham TSA 2 to utilize accommodation in the old Mt. Joy School. The training centre at Richmond Hill is badly overcrowded, a delegation told Markham Village Council last week. —Staff Photo

Trudeau Winters lead here

STOUFFVILLE — One of four candidates in the Liberal leadership race will emerge as the next Prime Minister of Canada, succeeding Hon. Lester B. Pearson. The current favorites are Pierre Elliott Trudeau, Robert Winters, Paul Martin and Paul Hellyer. Which one is your choice?
 A cross-section poll conducted by The Tribune among residents of Stouffville, shows Mr. Trudeau and Mr. Winters running neck and neck. Out of 25 persons contacted in town, ten supported Mr. Trudeau and ten favored Mr. Winters. Three persons voiced approval of Mr. Hellyer and two supported Mr. Martin.
 The convention, to be held in Ottawa, extends from April 4 to 7.

WHO DO YOU LIKE?

Pierre Elliott Trudeau Those in favor of Mr. Trudeau, contended that he was both young and energetic. Mr. Winters' supporters said that his experience in Parliament and the business world made him an excellent choice. One Main Street resident suggested that Mr. Winters would help to improve relations between English-speaking Canadians and the French of Quebec. Stouffville's delegate to the convention is Mrs. Grace Norton, Glad Park Avenue. Other delegates from York North are Randy LaMorre, Newmarket, representing the York North Young Liberals Association; Dr. W. J. Vail, Newmarket; Fred Hare, Temperanceville; Sidney Van Dyke, Bradford, and Tom Taylor, Newmarket. The delegation will attend the convention uncommitted. York North M.P., John Addison is working on behalf of candidate John Turner.
