Message from Queen on Diamond Anniversary

BUTTONVILLE — Mr. and Mrs. Elmore Hill, 16 Hughson Drive, Buttonville, who were married 60 years ago March 29, received many messages of congratulations on their diamond wedding anniversary. A cable from Queen Elizabeth and a telegram from Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson were two of the most prized.

Sault Ste. Marie and Mrs. Vince Frank of Pettawawa. Most of the 15 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren were at the party. Mr. Hill's brother John of Thornhill was present; Mrs. Hill's sister, Mrs. Lloyd Baker of Locust Hill poured tea, and a brother, Mr. Tom Wiltshire of Willowdale, attended but William Wiltshire of Vineland was unable to make the trip.

On Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Hill were guests of honor at a dinner party for 75 members of the immediate family at Buttonville W.I. Hall, followed by a reception for friends and relatives. There were two hundred signatures in the guest book.

For the evening Open House, Mrs. George Kelly, Mrs. Russell Boyington, Mrs. Hill's sister, Mrs. Baker and Mrs. Rose Brodie poured tea.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill (the former May Wiltshire) were born on farms which are now part of Toronto, Mr. Hill at Oriole and Mrs. Hill near Glengrove Ave. and Yonge Street. They were married at Toronto in a quiet ceremony by Rev. Baker.

Before her marriage Mrs. Hill was organist at St. John's Anglican Church, York Mills. For many years Mr. and Mrs. Hill farmed on John Street west of Don Mills Road and raised their family there. About 1955 they retired and moved to their present home in Arnleigh Heights.

Mr. Hill is an ardent fisherman. In the winter he likes nothing better than ice fishing at Lake Simcoe and during the summer he spends long hours on the waters of Gull Lake at Haliburton where their cottage is situated.

The couple's five children were present at Saturday's celebrations — Leslie Hill of Agincourt proposed the toast to the parents; Ernest, Newmarket; Alice (Mrs. Charity), South Porcupine; Florence (Mrs. Bowers), Kamloops, B.C. and Hazel (Mrs. Bruce Robinson), Thornhill, who planned the event. Two of the Hill's granddaughters travelled long distances to attend, Mrs. Ned Toner of Mrs. Hill has been an active member of Brown's Corners Church U.C.W. and Buttonville Women's Institute for many years. She is a talented crafts-woman, with quilting and rugging her specialties. The Hill's home attests to her skills.

and with a few more members the new Stouffville and District Curling Club building should be started shortly. (Similar in appearance to the Curling Club at Walkerton shown to the right).

If the proposal is approved, a limited company would be formed and shares issued to the initial contributors. Such shareholders would be the owners of the company, elect the directors and establish the constitution respecting club membership, etc.

If, in the opinion of the committee, there is insufficient financial support to warrant the successful establishment of the Stouffville Curling Club, all monies raised will be refunded to the respective contributors.
