Membership awards presented at Lions anniversary

Fifteen members of the Stouffville Lions Club received "Old Monarch" membership awards at the 30th anniversary meeting of the club Monday night. Of the twenty first charter members, only two remain as members now: Lions Nell Smith and Andy Williams. The first president of the club was the late J. R. Hodgins. The anniversary party and ladies' night was conducted by Lion president Don Huxtable. Receiving certificates are, back row (l. to r.), Lions Ken Lushway, George Williams, Nell Patrick, Bill Duxbury, Cec. Hendricks, Norm Hill and Lorne Broadway, all with ten year awards; front row, Bruce Winterstein, Walter Pipher and Ken Wagg (20 years), Reg Button (25 years), Nell Smith (30 years) Chas. Nolan (25 years) Walt Todd and Vern Davies, each 15 years.

Fire destroys farm implements

By Pat McClelland
CEDAR GROVE—Neighbors came to the rescue when a fire at Herb Diller's threatened to destroy all his tools and implements. The Dillers did not know of the blaze until Bill Butcher arrived and alerted them. Although the forage harvester and baler were lost, three forage wagons, hay rig, mower, corn planter, weed sprayer and smaller items were saved, thanks to the fast work of neighbors.

At present, an office operates part time in Markham but full time staff is expected soon. To familiarize the people in this and surrounding areas with the work and objects of the Family Life Centre all ladies are invited to attend a coffee party on Thursday, Apr. 18 from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m. in Zion Church.
 Notes About Neighbors
 Chris and Aljean Chapman were scheduled to arrive in Los Angeles for the Academy Award presentations on Monday night but, owing to the tragic happenings in the U.S.A., the Oscar night was postponed until Wednesday.
