

Five weeks to go

By Teresa Mowatt
STOUFFVILLE — With only five weeks left in the high school year, there is activity everywhere. The highlight of the social season is of course the May Prom, May 10.

Twenty pretty girls are entered including: Diedra Hiles, Betty Gayman, Pat Ford, Joy Barker, Linda Davis, Pat Smalley, Doreen Seabrook, Dianne Taylor, Betty-Anne Simpson, Sue Jones, Marlene Storry, Anne Duxbury, Margaret Birkett, Carolyn Wood, Elaine Clendinning, Sue Schell, Janine Bass, Judy LeBlond, Janet Winn and Bonnie Smith. The semi-formal dance is open to the public. Music will be supplied by "The Skyliners." At present a committee of students is preparing decorations.

The queen and her two attendants will be selected prior to the dance but the announcement will be withheld until the "crowning hour." The reigning queen from 1967, Margaret Sheridan will perform this honor.

Student Council

Nominations will soon be received for the election of the new Student Council for 1968-69. The nomination date is May 10 and elections, May 17. Students are urged to consider persons for these important positions and campaign on their behalf.

Golf Tips

Staff teachers, Mr. Jones and Mr. McArthur have been handing out "pro" golf tips a round the school. The instruction was put into practice by a number of students when they took to the greens at Rolling Hills, Tuesday.

Gangway

When Mrs. Leo Egberts failed to convince her husband that she should drive the family car, she threatened to purchase a Honda. But this too, failed to win hubby's approval. Now, she's the owner of a brand new Rawleigh motorized bicycle from Altona Feed and Supplies. The machine is even equipped with a speedometer.
