Successful wig demonstration

UNIONVILLE — It was standing room only at Crosby Memorial Arena in Unionville, when 'Sebastian' presented a wig demonstration on behalf of the Thornhaven Women's Auxiliary.

Mary Lou and David, hair stylist, along with Sebastian, gave the women from Markham, Stouffville and Unionville an evening to talk about, as they demonstrated the magic of wigs. The new lightweight stretch wigs, inexpensive hair pieces and luxurious falls were popular with the enthusiastic audience.

Eileen Winch and Susan Warr from Markham and Carol Hale, Unionville, allowed the hairstylist to transform them from the casual to the elaborate by the addition of a postiche. The young ladies modelled the hair creations along with dresses from de Bourbon Fashions, Markham, and everyone agreed that one could see why wigs are becoming so popular with the ladies of today.

Winners of door prizes were Mrs. Gloria Allison, Markham, (wig); Mrs. Jean Whale, Stouffville, (hair-piece). Both prizes were donated by Sebastian's Creative Design, Unionville.

While refreshments were being served, the ladies were given an opportunity to try on the various wigs.

The Women's Auxiliary of the Association for Retarded children would like to express their thanks and appreciation to Sammy, the three young ladies who modeled the wigs, and the staff of the arena and all those present who helped to make the evening such a success.
