STOUFFVILLE—Stouffville Council's rather lukewarm attitude toward any thought of amalgamation with the Southern Six Municipalities, has softened to the extent that representatives will join in a discussion with the Minister of Municipal Affairs at Queen's Park.
 Richmond Hill, Markham Village, Woodbridge, Vaughan and Markham Townships will also be represented at least two of these, Markham Township and Markham Village are not completely "sold" on the idea.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Debnay of Sudbury were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Appleton, Rupert Street. Mrs. Debnay and Mrs. Appleton are sisters.

Elect Kinsmen club executive for 1968-69

Fisherman's paradise
VIVIAN—Since mid-April the Department of Lands and Forests has stocked approximately 20,000 yearling brook trout and 5,000 yearling rainbow trout in many streams and lakes in the Lake Simcoe district. The stocking will be continued for another month.
 Several ponds in the York County Forest near Vivian were stocked with yearling brook trout one week prior to the season opening day and provided excellent fishing for anglers.
 At Usbridge, the two large ponds within the town limits received 3,400 brook trout during the Department's planting operation in April.
