Patricia Arlene Yake, lovely bride at Gormley wedding

GORMLEY—Baskets of white shasta daisies, yellow mums and yellow tulips, decorated the Gormley United Missionary Church for the wedding of Florence Arlene Yake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Yake, Unionville, R.R.1 and Mr. Gordon Ivan Good, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Fretz of Vineland, May 25, 1968, at 2:30 p.m.

Rev. L. K. Sider conducted the ceremony assisted by Rev. T. M. Losch.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride looked lovely in an A-line floor-length gown with built-in train of white daisy chantilly lace over peau de soie with an empire waistline and puff sleeves. A full-length veil fell from a rhinestone tiara. She carried a bouquet of lily of the valley, white carnations and ivy.

The beautiful gown was designed and made by the bride's matron of honor, Mrs. Albert Yake of Stouffville, R.R.4 who, with the bridesmaids, Miss Patti Riehl, Jordan Station, Miss Mary Ann Fretz, Vineland and Miss Ruth Howton, Kitchener, wore empire line dresses of white dotted Swiss with square necklines and puff sleeves, with turquoise sashes and bows, matching hats and shoes. They carried turquoise baskets of white shasta daisies, yellow button mums, ferns and ivy.

The pretty flower girl, Miss Alayne Fretz of West Hill, was dressed similar to the bridesmaids. The handsome ringbearer, Master Matthew Fretz wore a tuxedo similar to the ushers, David Yake of Kitchener and James Good and Michael Dobronski of Vineland. The best man was Mr. Lambert Yake, R.R.1, Unionville.

Mr. Lloyd Fretz of West Hill was the soloist. The organist was Mr. Larry Johnson, Cannington.

For the wedding reception, held at the Parkside Christian Youth Centre, Stouffville, the bride's mother received the guests, wearing a jacket dress of blue lace, blue and white accessories with a corsage of pink and white carnations. The groom's mother chose a pink lace dress with pink and white accessories and a corsage of pink and white carnations.

For their wedding trip to Eastern Canada, the bride wore a printed linen dress and coat, ensemble with a gardenia corsage. The happy couple are residing at Vineland.

Among the guests present at the wedding were Rev. and Mrs. Paul Fretz, missionaries to Brazil and brother of the groom. Other guests attended from Vineland, Jordan Station, Beamsville, Kitchener, Toronto, Barrie, Gormley, Stouffville, Goodwood and Unionville.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Ivan Good, married May 25 in Gormley United Missionary Church.
