Leave on vacation

By Pat McClennan
CEDAR GROVE—Hardly anyone was around Cedar Grove to make news this week. The early July weather lured many north, among them Ruby and Mabel Reesor, Ida and Karen Tapscott, Elsie and Marion Reesor, to a friend's cottage; Doris and Harold Lapp, for a resort holiday; Cathy McClennan to the Ottawa area; and Colin Reesor to Jack McIntosh's cottage. Phyllis Ritchie has returned from a holiday in Ohio.
 A few were drawn to Cedar Grove. Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius for a week-end here; and Bill Wright to visit the Reesors and the Tapscotts. Aljean Chapman is entertaining her mother from California en route to Scotland and an aunt and uncle from Boston for a few weeks.
 Euchre winners for the first of July were: Margaret Oldham, Florence Colings, Mary Connor; Ralph Carter, Percy Cotton and Bert Frances.
 Next euchre will be held in Cedar Grove school house on July 15.
 Mr. and Mrs. Harold Baldwin of Stouffville, formerly of Buttonville, will celebrate their Diamond Wedding Anniversary, Aug. 5.

Pool owners

PICKERING—Do you have a fence around your swimming pool? If not, you are liable to be fined.
 In handing out a fine to Henry Westney, R. 1, Pickering, Wm. C. Murkar, J.P., said that it was quite possible that a number of Pickering Township private swimming pool owners were not aware of the fencing-by-law.
 All swimming pools, whether in rural or urban areas, are required to be fenced, and that they should also have a gate that should be locked when the pool is not in use.
