Gordon Brown superintendent

STOUFFVILLE — A well-known former area electrical contractor, Gordon H. Brown, 46, has been associated with Stouffville Public Utilities in various capacities for the past 17 years. He is now superintendent of the Utility and has served in an able manner in that position for the past three years.

A native of Stouffville, Gordon Brown attended school in Bloomington. He worked for seven years on the farm with his father, the late J. Percy Brown, a widely known Stouffville area farmer in the 9th Concession, Whitchurch Township.

After that he started in the electrical contracting business in Stouffville and district, continuing in that work for some six years.

At the same time he was doing electrical contracting, Gordon Brown started as a part-time employee of Stouffville PUC in 1951. Five years later he joined the staff of the Utility full time doing outside line work.

In 1965, the Commission promoted Gordon Brown to superintendent.

He is married to the former Edna Wideman of Stouffville and they have four children, Caroline, 19, Robert, 17, Charlene, 16 and Bonnie, 7. The Browns live at 88 Edward Street in Stouffville.
