for Pickering Township at all. I am not going cap in hand to any government. What I am doing, and what this council is doing, is obtaining for the people in Pickering Township their just right and their just dessert.

"I get infuriated," he went on, "When I get hell from the News Advertiser for appearing before the Select Committee of the Legislature. I would like the publisher to know that that brief was approved by the whole council, and we are still 100% behind it. "If we cannot get support in an endeavour like this with the local press," he said, "How are we going to get the support of the Metropolitan Council? From there the floor was taken by Councillor John Kruger.

"The two honorable gentlemen sitting in Queen's Park," he said,

"While not stabbing directly, by their inaction are doing just that. We just have to go back and sit down with Mr. Randall and Mr. MacNaughton. It is toward this government we must direct our irony."

Councillor Don Kitchen said: "If they admit we require $46 million and won't assist us, they are not able to solve our problem."

After a letter was read from Liberal M.P. Norman Cafik thanking council for giving the go-ahead for a new separate school in the township Councillor Vic Rudik said: "I think we should look a little higher and seek help from other representatives."

"Approach the Liberal side and the N.D.P. side and say these Conservatives cannot do anything for us... it's remarkable what can come with a little strategy like that," said Mr. Williams.

Wally Koster spent a holiday with his school pal Tom Forges at a cottage near North Bay.
