

A braw bricht day for colorful Markham highland games

The highland games came to the fair grounds at Markham, Saturday and the kilt was all the fashion. What does a true-blue Scot wear underneath? Six year old Cheryl Murphy intends to satisfy her curiosity. —Staff Photo

The reeve wore tartan

MARKHAM — It was truly a great day for the Scottish and Reeve Alma Walker was one of the clan. Sporting a crisp new tartan, she officially opened the first highland games ever held in Markham, Saturday afternoon. An estimated 5,000 people attended from distant points in Ontario and the United States. Many more, including some bands, were forced to turn back at the U.S. border due to early-morning fog.

David Mulholland, president of the clans of Scarborough, was so pleased with the success of the program that he hopes to make it an annual affair. His daughter, Maureen, presented reeve Walker with a bouquet of flowers and York North, M.P., Barney Danson with a kilt and sporrans for Prime Minister Trudeau.

All activities were well organized with the bands competing on the main grounds and the dancers participating on a platform inside the track. The tug-of-war between the Metro police and the Irish Regiment was won in two straight pulls by Toronto's finest.

A dance in the arena at night concluded the event.

Welcome wife of new pastor

STOUFFVILLE — The regular monthly meeting of the Stouffville United Missionary W.M.S., was a rather special occasion. Members had an opportunity to meet Mrs. John Hamilton, wife of Rev. Hamilton soon to take over the charge. Mrs. Hamilton was introduced by Mrs. Earl Honsberger and the ladies welcomed her with a grocery shower.

Thirty-two members were present. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Carl Reesor.

Vice president, Mrs. Stewart Wideman was in charge. She read a letter from Mr. and Mrs. Harold Knights, now stationed in Nigeria. The study was taken by Mrs. Garth Good.

Testimonies of praise were given by Mrs. Walter Gray and Mrs. Eldon Boetger. The devotional was in charge of Myrtle Sider.

The next meeting is planned for Sept. 26 at the church.

AS SCHOOL STARTS—

Jacks and Jills and Ills and Pills

Jack and Jill were taken ill
And needed medication.
Jack made for a discount store.
But Jill scorned the temptation.
"I demand an expert's hand;
The pharmacy's where I go.
They have the skill to tend each ill
From flu to impetigo.
Poor Jack will find when buying blind
That luck 'most always fails him;
There's no one there to know or care
About what hurts or ails him."
