Hale and hearty at 92

By ADA STECKLEY RINGWOOD—The many friends of Mrs. Herb Beech will be pleased to know that she is enjoying excellent health at the age of 92. Mrs. Beech is a resident of Markham and was visited recently by Mrs. Fred Steckley. Mrs. Fleming Sr. has returned to her home in Alberta after visiting for several weeks with her son George and family. Mrs. Griffiths has returned home to Hamilton following a stay at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Frank Atkinson. The Brownsberger reunion was held at Victoria Square August 17. Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Brownsberger and Mr. John Brownsberger spent the weekend

Float own ship

PICKERING TWP.—The Township of Pickering has its own rescue launch and although, according to reeve John Williams, it patrols an area from Scarboro to Oshawa, no financial assistance in its upkeep will come from the County of Ontario.

A request by reeve Williams for up to $625 to purchase two-way radio equipment for the craft has been rejected by County members.

Mr. Williams said that the boat was operated by unpaid volunteers. He said that while maintenance costs were borne by Pickering, neighboring municipalities benefitted by its presence.

Reeve Henry Polak of Ajax agreed that the amount of money was 'peanuts' and that the 27 foot launch was doing 'excellent work' with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brownsberger.

Seven members of the Marshall Raymond family of Erie, Pennsylvania, attended the Brownsberger reunion. Several residents have been ill in hospital including Mrs. A. Emmerson in Uxbridge; Donald Harman in St. Michael's; Stanley Mitchell in Brierbush and Mrs. Phillips in Scarboro Centennary.

Greenwood bantams host Embro

By BETTY PEGG GREENWOOD—Greenwood Bantams, coached by Bill Thomas, have advanced to the all-Ontario finals. They will play host to Embro, a village near Woodstock, at Greenwood Park on Saturday at 8.30 p.m. Greenwood downed Kilbride in the semi-final series.

Mr. and Mrs. John Carison and Janey, of Claremont, had dinner Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Milton Pegg.

Edward Pegg, of Markham, visited with his parents on Sunday. Thirty-five relatives of the White family, held their re-union at the Claremont Conservation Park, Sunday.

Steven Goodwin and Larry Morden returned from the 1st Ontario Jamboree at Kelso, Friday night.

Miss Ann Messer is spending a week in Kingston with her sister, Mrs. Ian Butters.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken

Brooks and family and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Pegg and Ruth and Mr. and Mrs. John Brooks and Robert, visited Sunday at the Will Pegg's cottage on Lake Simcoe. Bob Baun and boys are spending a few days in Newfoundland at Hockey School there. Mr. and Mrs. Peter Byberg, and family have returned, after spending some time at their cottage in Cariboo. The Claremont Citizens Band played at Blackstock Fair, Saturday.
