

Pottery maker attracts attention

There was much to see at the Markham antique show and exhibition in the Markham Arena, Sept. 6 and 7. One craft that attracted the attention of visitors was the art of pottery making, displayed by Mrs. Anne Dierks Wade, conc. 6, Whitchurch, R.R. 1, Cedar Valley. —Staff Photo

Altona girl is lovely bride

STOUFFVILLE — At Stouffville United Church, on Saturday, August 24, at 4 p.m., Patricia Mary Brass, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Watters, of Altona, was united in marriage to Mr. Wayne L. Magee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Magee, of Scarborough. Dr. A. F. Binington performed the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride looked lovely in a floor-length, A-line, peau de soie wedding gown of apricot, with an overlay of white chantilly lace, scalloped at top and bottom, with matching veil and headpiece. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

The bride's attendants, Mrs. Moira Watters, sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. Jane Robertson, of Don Mills, were dressed alike in forest green and bone white, Empress-style, floor-length gowns of woven lace and crepe, with matching flower headpieces.

The best man was Mr. Tim Stapleton, of Willowdale, and the ushers were Mr. Jack Watters and Mr.

Gary Magee, brothers of the bride and groom respectively.

Mrs. Florence Williams rendered two beautiful solos, "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord Is My Shepherd." Mr. R. Phelps was the organist.

The reception was held at Stouffville Legion Hall, where Mr. Ted Lamb, brother-in-law of the bride, was master of ceremonies.

The bride's mother received her guests in a navy blue crepe dress, trimmed with white beads at the neckline, and matching accessories.

The groom's mother chose a two-piece ensemble, with matching accessories.

After the reception and dance, the happy couple left on a honeymoon in Northern Ontario. For going away, the bride wore a two-piece white linen suit, with lace trimmings, with olive green hat and accessories, and a corsage of yellow orchids.

On their return, they will reside at 48 Leahurst Drive, Scarborough. Guests were present from Niagara Falls, N.Y.

Collingwood, Burlington, Richmond Hill, Peterboro, Brighton, Whitby, Toronto, Coborne, Thornhill, Oshawa and Port Perry.

Bride's father performs ceremony

GORMLEY — The marriage of Miriam Ruth Sider, only daughter of Rev. and Mrs. L. K. Sider, Gormley, and Raymond Gordon Scott, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Scott, Willowdale, took place Saturday, Aug. 24 at 1 o'clock in Parkway Bible Church, Scarborough.

The father of the bride performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. Dr. R. P. Pannabecker, of Mishawaka, Indiana. Organ and vocal music were provided by the brother of the bride, Mr. J. W. Sider, also of Mishawaka. Mrs. Kenneth Davis of Waterloo, accompanied him at the piano. The bride chose "Purcell's Trumpet Voluntary" as the processional, and Mr. Sider sang "The King of Love" and "The God of Peace."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an A-line Empire gown of white peau de soie styled with a bodice of Guipure lace and a back rosette. Her veil fell from a headpiece of flowers and streamers to form a cathedral train. She carried a cascade arrangement of white carnations, yellow sweethearts and fern.

Mrs. Betty Sider was matron of honor for her sister-in-law. The bridesmaids were Miss Chrysong Scott, the groom's sister, and Miss Merla Bolender, a cousin of the bride. Miss Sharon Arbon also, a cousin, was the flower girl. They wore identical gowns of lemon yellow crepe de chine trimmed with daisies. White shastas, yellow pom-poms, yellow sweethearts and fern made up their bouquets.

Mr. Wayne Scott attended his brother as the best man. Mr. Reginald Scott and Mr. Elgin Sider, brothers of the bridegroom and bride respectively, were the ushers. Master Philip Sider, the bride's nephew, was the ring bearer.

For the luncheon reception, held in the Fellowship Hall of Gormley United Missionary Church, the bride's mother received, wearing a brown and white princess dress, brown accessories and a corsage of yellow sweethearts. She was assisted by the mother of the groom, who wore a dress of turquoise peau de soie with matching accessories and a corsage of pink sweethearts.

For travelling, the bride chose a navy and green ensemble. She wore a corsage of gardenias and Stephanotis, and the groom's wedding gift of silver earrings. After a honeymoon in central Ontario, the couple have taken up residence at 139 Fulton Ave., Toronto 6.

Wedding guests were present from Scarborough, Agincourt, Willowdale, Don Mills, Toronto, Rich-
