Major and Mrs. Fred Lewis

Celebrate fifty 'golden years' together

Family attend reunion

GORMLEY — Major Fred Lewis first met his lovely wife Margaret across a counter in Eaton's downtown department store. He was just a casual shopper and she was a sales clerk. It was love at first sight and the two were married a few months later in St. James Cathedral, Toronto. Fifty 'golden years' have since passed and on Saturday the two were honored at a gathering of friends, to mark the anniversary occasion. The 'at home' was held at the residence of their only daughter, Dorothy (Mrs. M. A. Sugden), Bethésda. More than 60 persons called to offer congratulations.

Major and Mrs. Lewis have lived at Gormley for the past seven years.

Although their honeymoon trip consisted only of a short boat ride to Hanlan's Point, they have since travelled to and from England many times.

Major Lewis is justly proud of his war record, both in the British and Canadian army. He served 27 years in two world wars, receiving the Military Medal and several other decorations.

While in England, he was made President of the Comrades of Great Britain and later in Canada, held the position of President of the Royal Canadian Legion. Besides their daughter, Dorothy, they have two sons, George and Fred.

"If I had my life to live over again, nothing would be changed," said Mrs. Lewis, "not even the choice of a husband. My advice to those contemplating marriage is, know your partner well and marry young." She said that their family had been a source of great joy for them through the years, and continued to grow stronger as they grew older. All were present for the reunion. Sgt. Fred Lewis is stationed in Edmonton.

The highly respected couple received telegrams of congratulations from Governor General Michener, Prime Minister Trudeau, Hon. John Deffenbaker and Premier John Robarts.

Mrs. Lloyd Moyer, Dorothy and Mildred Church St., attended the wedding on Saturday of Judith Ann McKinney to Robert Milne, in the People's Church, Toronto.
