Close curling club

WHITCHURCH TWP. — The Rollins Hills Curling Club will not operate this winter.

The decision, announced this week, has been attributed to lack of membership.

Officers told The Tribune that inactivity during daytime hours made it impractical for the club to continue. The building may be used for some other purpose but details were not revealed.

A meeting of the executive of the Stouffville Curling Club was held Tuesday and an announcement of what will be made next week.
