

Autumn wedding, Claremont United Church

CLAREMONT — Yellow and white gladioli decorated Claremont United Church for the wedding, Aug. 31, 1968 of Barbara Grace Pugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Pugh, Claremont, R.R. 2, and Frederick Stanley Moore of Alliston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Redshaw, Claremont. Rev. Arthur Cresswell performed the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride looked lovely in a white floor length gown with an A-line skirt and empire waist and train of hammered satin. An elbow length veil was held by orange flowers centered with crystal druse. She carried red American Beauty roses and white heather from Scotland.

Maid of honor, Miss Sandra Seymour, Toronto and bridesmaids Miss Helen McDougall, Rodney and Mrs. Marie Hedges, Claremont, sister of the groom, wore A-line floor length dresses of green English shantung with empire waist. They carried yellow shasta daisies, white heather and yellow velvet ribbon.

The bridesmaids wore crystal drop necklaces and ear rings, a gift from the bride.

James Torrance, Claremont, was the best man. The ushers were: Wallace Pugh, Claremont, brother of the bride, and Rod Hedges, also of Claremont, brother-in-law of the groom. They wore charcoal gray suits.

Mrs. Jack Hill, Claremont, R.R. 2, was the organist and Mrs. Douglas Ashton, Ashburn, the soloist. She sang "The Wedding Prayer" during the ceremony and "O Perfect Love" during the signing of the register.

the church parlors, the bride's mother received her guests wearing an orange ice dress with lace bodice, matching hat, brown accessories and a corsage of orange carnations and yellow roses. The groom's mother wore a blue dress with navy accessories and a corsage of pink and white carnations.

For the honeymoon trip into Northern Ontario, the bride chose a rose, two-piece suit with beige picture hat and black patent accessories. She wore a white orchid corsage.

The happy couple are making their home in Alliston.

Moving month for Gormley folks

By Evelyn Millsted GORMLEY — September was 'moving month' in the Gormley community.
