Organize all-star leagues

STOUFFVILLE—Minor Hockey registration will take place on Saturday, Oct. 19 at the Municipal Office from 9:30 until 12 noon and at the arena on Monday from 6:30 to 9 p.m. on Monday, Oct. 21. Fees for Tyke and Novice age players is $8.00 while Peewee and Bantam age players will pay $12. The family maximum is $25.

Minor hockey players will be able to skate on Monday and Wednesday from 6 to 9. However, no sticks or pucks will be allowed.

Family subscriber tickets will be available again this year at a cost of $5. There will be no single subscriber ticket. Such tickets are valid for all home league games as well as the home games of the O.M.H.A. teams with the exception of the Juvenile team.

This year the Peewee O.M.H.A. team will be playing in a league with Uxbridge, Port Perry, Oshawa, Brooklin, Pickering, Ajax and Markham.

The local Bantam entry will oppose Port Perry, Brooklin, West Rouge, Uxbridge and Markham while the Midget team will play against Newcastle, Bav Ridges, Markham, Uxbridge, West Rouge, Brooklin and Port Perry.

Don't forget the Minor Hockey Dance at the Legion Hall on Friday, Oct. 25 beginning at 8:30 p.m. Tickets available from members or at the door.

'Clipper' coach signs seven players

STOUFFVILLE—Skipper Don Haynes and his assistant, Bob Hassard have set the 'Clipper' ship a-sail with the signing of seven players.

To date, the main strength is on the port side with four of the seven men patrolling left wing. They are: Bob McNeil, Al Patterson, Wolfgang Schlombs and Ray Pipher.

Dan Pettit, a rearguard stalwart with the Juniors last season, will be back. He is just as potent up front as on the blue-line. Ron Jones and Ken Aida are solid defencemen.

The 'Clipper' crew will grow as more mates climb aboard. Bob Hassard and Art Rennick should make a strong goal-scoring duo.

Twenty-five players attended work-outs on Sunday and again Tuesday. One of the bright spots was the work between the pipes of Dennis Forsyth. Although still of Junior age, his poise and agility impressed coach Haynes.

The league grouping and schedule will be finalized at a meeting in Sunderland this week.

Top teams lose

WHITCHURCH TWP.—Two major upsets left Lemonville and Armitage still tied for top position. Last place Vandorf School won their first game in spectacular style as they demolished Armitage 30-0.

Quarterback Eddie Parr threw four touchdown strikes. Two were grabbed by Bob Alcorn while Gary VanNostrand and Ray Wallace handled one a piece. Wolfram Melzer ran back an interception to round out the Vandorf scoring.

Lemonville failed to capitalize on the Armitage loss as they bowed to Pine Orchard by a score of 12 to 7. Jim Downey scored on the last play of the game to give Pine Orchard the win. Gary Shropshire had the other major for Pine Orchard while Jim Wilson caught his seventh touchdown pass of the season to take care of the scoring for Lemonville.
