

Claremont Boy Scout honored by Governor General

By Kay Allman

Haig DeRusha, a 13 year old Claremont Scout was in Ottawa last week to receive a "Meritorious Conduct" medal presented to him by Governor General Roland Michener. In July 1967, Haig picked up Brian McLeod who had fallen off the slide in Stouffville Park and carried him six blocks to a doctor. He stayed with him until the boy was taken to Scarborough Hospital. At the time, Brian suffered concussion, but is fine now.
