Married at Zion, Wexford

WEXFORD — Zion Wexford United Church was decorated with white gladioli for the wedding, Sept. 21, 1968 of Eleanor Ruth Richards, daughter of Mrs. Charles Richards and the late Mr. Richards, Agincourt, and Gerald Edwin Turpin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Turpin, Cobourg. Rev. Harold Frid performed the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her brother, the bride looked lovely in a floor length A-line gown of bonded crepe, featuring long sleeves and chapel train trimmed in heavy French lace. The shoulder-length veil was trimmed with matching lace. She carried a bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis.

The maid of honor was Miss Ida Richards of Agincourt, sister of the bride. She wore an

A-line floor length dress of King Fisher blue and green brocade. The pretty flower girl was Miss Janice Richards of Stouffville, niece of the bride. She wore an A-line floor length dress of turquoise crystal organza. Both attendants carried a spray of white daisies.

Mr. Les O'Brien of Cobourg, was best man. The ushers were Murray Richards and Gerald Adams.

Mrs. Margaret Keen was guest soloist, accompanied at the organ by Mr. William Ruhnke. During the ceremony she sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "The Song of Ruth."

At the wedding reception, held in the church auditorium, the bride's mother received the guests wearing a mauve silk dress with matching lace coat. The groom's mother assisted in a dress of brown lace.

For their honeymoon trip, the bride wore an Italian-knit dress of creamy white with a matching yellow coat and black accessories. The happy couple are now residing in Cobourg.

Mrs. Helen DeWitt of Stouffville was the guest speaker at a meeting of the Excelsior Class Ladies of Ringwood Christian Church at the home of Mrs. Almer Fockler.
