Wed in private ceremony

STOUFFVILLE—A private but pretty ceremony was performed by Rev. John Hamilton in the Stouffville Missionary Church, October 14, 1968 when Nancy Barkey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Barkey was united in marriage to Wade L. Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Brown, Ninth Line—South, Stouffville. The bride looked lovely in a street-length dress of white lace over taffeta with scoop neckline and three-quarter sleeves. Her net veil fell from a coronet of pearls and rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of red roses, white mums and white carnations. Her bridesmaid, Miss Irene Smith, Stouffville, R.R. 3, wore a pink street-length dress of lavender over taffeta with long sleeves, high neckline and a ruffled collar. She carried a bouquet of white roses and white mums. Terrence W. Brown, Main Street, Stouffville, was the best man. For the reception that followed, the bride's home was decorated with sprays of autumn leaves and baskets of roses. The bride's mother wore an aqua dress with a corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother wore a white wool suit with gold accessories and a yellow rose corsage. For going away on a honeymoon trip into Northern Ontario and Michigan, the bride wore a blue flowered white dress. The happy couple are now residing at R.R. 1, Locust Hill.

Balsam girl is September bride

Married at Mt. Zion

MT. ZION — Baskets of pink and white gladioli formed a pretty setting in Mt. Zion United Church for the marriage, September 21, 1968 of Linda June Graham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Graham, Balsam, Ontario to Robert Harry Sullivan, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Sullivan of Caledon. Rev. Thomas H. Freetham performed the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride looked lovely in a floor-length gown of white brocade with empire waistline and shoulder-length veil. She carried a bouquet of white mums and pink roses.

Maid of honor, Diane Graham and bridesmaids, Debra Graham, sisters of the bride and Diane Greer, wore floor-length gowns of pale green with matching pale green pouf veils. They carried bouquets of pink and white mums. Lori Fleming, niece of the bride, was the pretty flower girl. She wore a white floor-length dress with green ribbon trim.

Keith Copeland, Toronto was the best man. The ushers were William Graham, brother of the bride and Dirk Lubken.

Mr. Norman Williams, Oshawa was the organist. Mr. Irwin Gibson, brother-in-law of the bride sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "O Perfect Love". At the reception, the bride's mother received her guests wearing a gold silk shantung jacket dress with pink and white accessories. She wore a white carnation corsage. The groom's mother chose a green silk crepe dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink and white carnations. For going away on a honeymoon trip to Stoney Lake, the bride looked lovely in a mauve check suit with black accessories and a corsage of white mums. The happy couple are now residing in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harry Sullivan, married September 21 in Mount Zion United Church.

Church anniversary

By Ruth Hutchings
GREEN RIVER — The 125th anniversary of Green River Baptist Church will be marked on Sunday with special services at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. The guest pastor will be Rev. L. D. Begg of Toronto. Special music will be provided by Mrs. K. Falls of Brougham in the morning and by the 25-voice male choir from Oshawa in the evening. Ministers from Locust Hill and Whitevale United Churches have been invited as well as the pastor of Markham Baptist Church.

The Senior Young People's Society will hold their first meeting of the fall and winter season, Nov. 14. The leaders are:

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Draper. The Baptist Women's Day of Prayer will be held Nov. 4 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. J. C. W. Irwin, Whitevale.

Mrs. William Scown attended a shower for the bride-to-be of her great nephew, Mr. Keith Bray
