Discuss regional government

PICKERING TWP. — Pickering's reeve and deputy-reeve are authorized by council to represent the township at any meetings with Oshawa about regional government, which "will demonstrate that the door is not closed to discussion."

Councillor John Kruger proposed a resolution, and it was passed, that Pickering Twp. was reasonable in its attitude toward regional government, and not insular or inflexible.

The stern note which followed was that this representation shall not in any way threaten negotiations with Metro Toronto on the same subject.

Claremont visitors

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan enjoyed dinner Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Norman King, Belhaven. They visited with their brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Murray Phillips of Little Britain and formerly of Brougham.

OUR CUSTOMERS ALWAYS RETURN!!

Advertising really pays, they say, And we surely have the proof today. A month ago thieves broke the lock And carried off our choicest stock. We related it in "VIC'S VILE VERSE" But this turned out to be a curse For thieves must read the TRIBUNE too, And check the ads, the same as you! They saw we still had suits for sale, And expecting new stock without fail. They got off with another stack For, last night, they came back for more! We can't advertise what they left behind This time they were not quite so kind— They got off with an empty rack! And left us with an empty rack! But cheer up folks, we're not beat yet And though stock suits you cannot get, A special price is now in store. On made-to-measure clothes galore. Stripes and checks and fancy weaves In all the shades of autumn leaves Priced for the modest pocket book. Yet still give you that well dressed look. From the warmth of welcome you will learn Our valued customers always return!

Masquerade party

By Mildred Puckrin
AUDLEY — The club held a masquerade party in the school Saturday evening. Winners were: Junior Children — Witch, Susan Craig; Devil, Andrew Craig; Fairy, Monica Hoefal; Mexican, Shane Bice; Witch, Brett Bice; Indian, John Kampman.

Seniors and Adults: Chinese Boy, Eddie Bourgeois; Funniest Man, Fred Puckrin; Best Lady, Dorothy Smith and Dale Betson. The committee led the group in some Halloween games.

The club will hold the November meeting Saturday evening at the home of Bill and Mrs. Guthrie, when Mr. Grant Wells of Stouffville will show pictures of Rhodesia. Grant was the Canadian champion plowman in 1967.

There was a large attendance at the auction sale on the farm of Charlie Clemence. Charlie and Gladys are moving this week to Brooklin.

The Rev. M. R. Jenkinson, of Victoria Square was the guest speaker at the anniversary service on Oct. 20.

Costume party

The Ringwood Ladies' Euchre Club held their Halloween euchre at the home of Clara Harman, Oct. 28. Everyone attended in costume. Winners included: Marv Carey, Sandra Fraser, Grace Murray, Eleanor Wood (oscar). Best costume prizes went to Eleanor Wood, Marv Carey and Sandra Fraser.
