Editor's mail

Dear Mr. Thomas:
Your editorial in the November 1 issue of the Tribune re stop signs was read with interest. May I say that I wholeheartedly concur with your recommendations. Signs should always clearly indicate the intent. I believe that yield signs on high speed roads have no value. If anything they have a tendency to confuse the driver.

no fatalities. This is the third major accident on this corner within the past two months. I am personally going to undertake that your recommendations in the editorial be implemented.

In the past I have personally advocated stop signs and the posting of speed limits on our roads within certain areas of the municipality. There is much opposition towards either the reduction of speed or erection of stop signs in certain areas of the Township which have proven to be dangerous.

Again, early this morning, an accident occurred on the corner of the 5th Concession and 18th Avenue in Markham Township. Fortunately, to the best of my knowledge, there were

Please continue to print this type of editorial because they are of assistance to people who are attempting to bring about the necessary changes.
