

Late Wray Padgett

Former Claremont storekeeper

By Kay Allman
CLAREMONT — The community was saddened to learn of the passing, Saturday morning in Cobourg, of a former resident, Mr. Wray Padgett. Mr. Padgett owned and operated a grocery store in the village and was well liked and respected by everyone. Mr. and Mrs. Padgett moved to Cobourg from Claremont. Sympathy is extended to surviving members of the family.

Gordon and Murray McDowell, Tom Benson, Ivan Beverley and Earle Pilkey left Sunday on a deer hunting trip into northern Ontario.

Forty-one relations held a surprise birthday party at Fairview Lodge Sunday in honor of Mrs. Tom Hammond's mother, Mrs. Sarah Prouse. Mrs. Prouse is 84.

Anyone wishing to purchase tins of mixed nuts for Christmas please contact the secretary of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Cubs and Scouts, Mrs. Geo. DeRusha.

Mrs. Gordon Gauslin was a delegate from the Claremont Women's Institute, which held its Central Area Convention at the Royal York Hotel. Mrs. Wm. Evans attended as a visitor.

We are sorry to learn that Mrs. Minnie Evans is not well.

Orville Cox has improved so well he is expected home shortly. He suffered a broken arm and facial cuts in a car accident.

Peter White and friends from Green River have been away deer hunting at Webwood, near Espanola, this past week.

Mrs. Wm. Irwin, wife of a former Claremont bank manager, has sold her home in Stouffville and is moving to Halifax to live with her sister.

Mrs. Jean Hamilton is still in hospital but is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Etcher and daughter, of Windsor spent a few days with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Earle Pilkey.

Blair Evans and John Devitt have just returned from Parry Sound where they were deer hunting.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Roy Ward on the passing of her mother, Mrs. W. P. Jones, formerly of Balsam. She was 98.

Forty-three members of the Legion Ladies' Auxiliary enjoyed a bus trip to Toronto.

The community was shocked to hear of the drowning of Mr. and Mrs. James Stewart of Newmarket. Their car was found in the Bradford Canal Saturday morning. Mr. Stewart had worked for six months at Jack Ward's Welding Shop and was well liked throughout the village. They leave a two-year old son.

The Women's Institute will meet at the home of Mrs. Muriel Torrance on Wed., Nov. 20 at 2 p.m. Mrs. Florence Barton will demonstrate the making of glass flowers. Roll Call to be: Name a Variety of Apple. Bring an apple pie to be judged.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Briggs, Scarborough; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Briggs, Scarborough; Mrs. Ruby Veley, Arden; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Winterburn, Alton and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Jones and family, Goodwood, attended a birthday party given in honor of Mr. W. J. Biggs Saturday. He is 79. Mr. and Mrs. John MacDonald of Scarborough also visited with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Briggs.

The Remembrance Day Service and parade held Sunday was well attended with thirty members in the Color Party in charge of, Doug Weir, Cubs, Scouts, Guides, Brownies, and Rangers participated in the parade with John Murray, parade marshal. The salute was taken by John Maw, Jim Norton and Bill Voss. Rev. Albert Luck took the service with Rev. Eldon Linstead reading the Scripture.

Those laying wreaths at the foot of the Legion cross in the church were: Ladies' Legion Auxiliary, Pres. Mrs. Geo. DeRusha; Men's Legion, Jack Lehman; Silver Cross Mothers; Mrs. Margaret Benson; Claremont School, Debbie Carruthers; Scouts and Cubs, Dwight Goden; Guides, Brownies, Rangers, Marion Britton; Bay Ridges Legion Branch 606 and the Women's Auxili-
