

Sunday School concert

By Marion Wells
 LEMONVILLE — Dec. 13, Lemonville Sunday School will present their Christmas concert with the production "No Room in the Inn" under the direction of Mrs. H. Hirsch. Dec. 15, White Gift Sunday will be celebrated during the church service. All donations will be delivered to Fred Victor Mission, Toronto.

onto.
 Mrs. Nauta and Mrs. Ernstzen accompanied the senior class to Trinity Anglican Church to view the beautiful Nativity presented each year.

The U.C.W. meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Grant Wells. Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Gracey were the special guests, sharing their Christmas past in Malaya. Mrs. Syme of Winnipeg was also present. Mrs. Carol Brodie was guest soloist.

Mrs. Nauta was guest at the Presbyterian W.M.S. meeting in Dundas, giving the Nativity Story.

Mrs. P. Courage enjoyed a week's visit with relatives in Carleton Place.

THANK YOU

I wish to thank Whitchurch and Stouffville electorate who supported me for the Board of Education.

Wishing everyone joyful season's greetings.

Sincerely yours,
 C. W. BRILLINGER.

Presents honorary life membership

Markham York Hospital Corporation has honored Douglas Crawford with a Life Membership in appreciation of his leadership and guidance in the foundation of the project. Mr. Crawford, (left), former manager of the Markham Bank of Nova Scotia, has been appointed to a new bank position in Jamaica. The presentation is made by the executive secretary, Ray Ostrander.
