'Punch Line' paces juveniles

STOUFFVILLE — Skating was the name of the game in the last frame when they downed Port Perry 6-2.

The early part of the game was a rather dull exhibition but the tempo picked up and the local squad fired three goals in the last period.

The line of Dave Farlow, Bill Thornhill and Wayne Jackson performed best for the winners and claimed half of the goal output.

Garry Sugden combined with Jim Lamoreaux to open the scoring. The final marker of the initial period came off the stick of Dave Farlow after Wayne Jackson and Bill Thornhill structured the play.

The second stanza provided twenty minutes of close checking and only one tally. Wayne Jackson was responsible for the unassisted effort. A Port Perry warrior was a resident of the penalty box at the time.

Bantam bubble breaks

STOUFFVILLE — Uxbridge broke the Bantam bubble when they took a 7-5 decision from Stouffville. The visitors out-hustled the local team for most of the game and were not deterred by Stouffville's three goals which came within the first five minutes of play. If anything, the deficit ignited the Uxbridge fuse. By contrast, the cushion became a couch for Stouffville and they coasted to their second loss of the season.

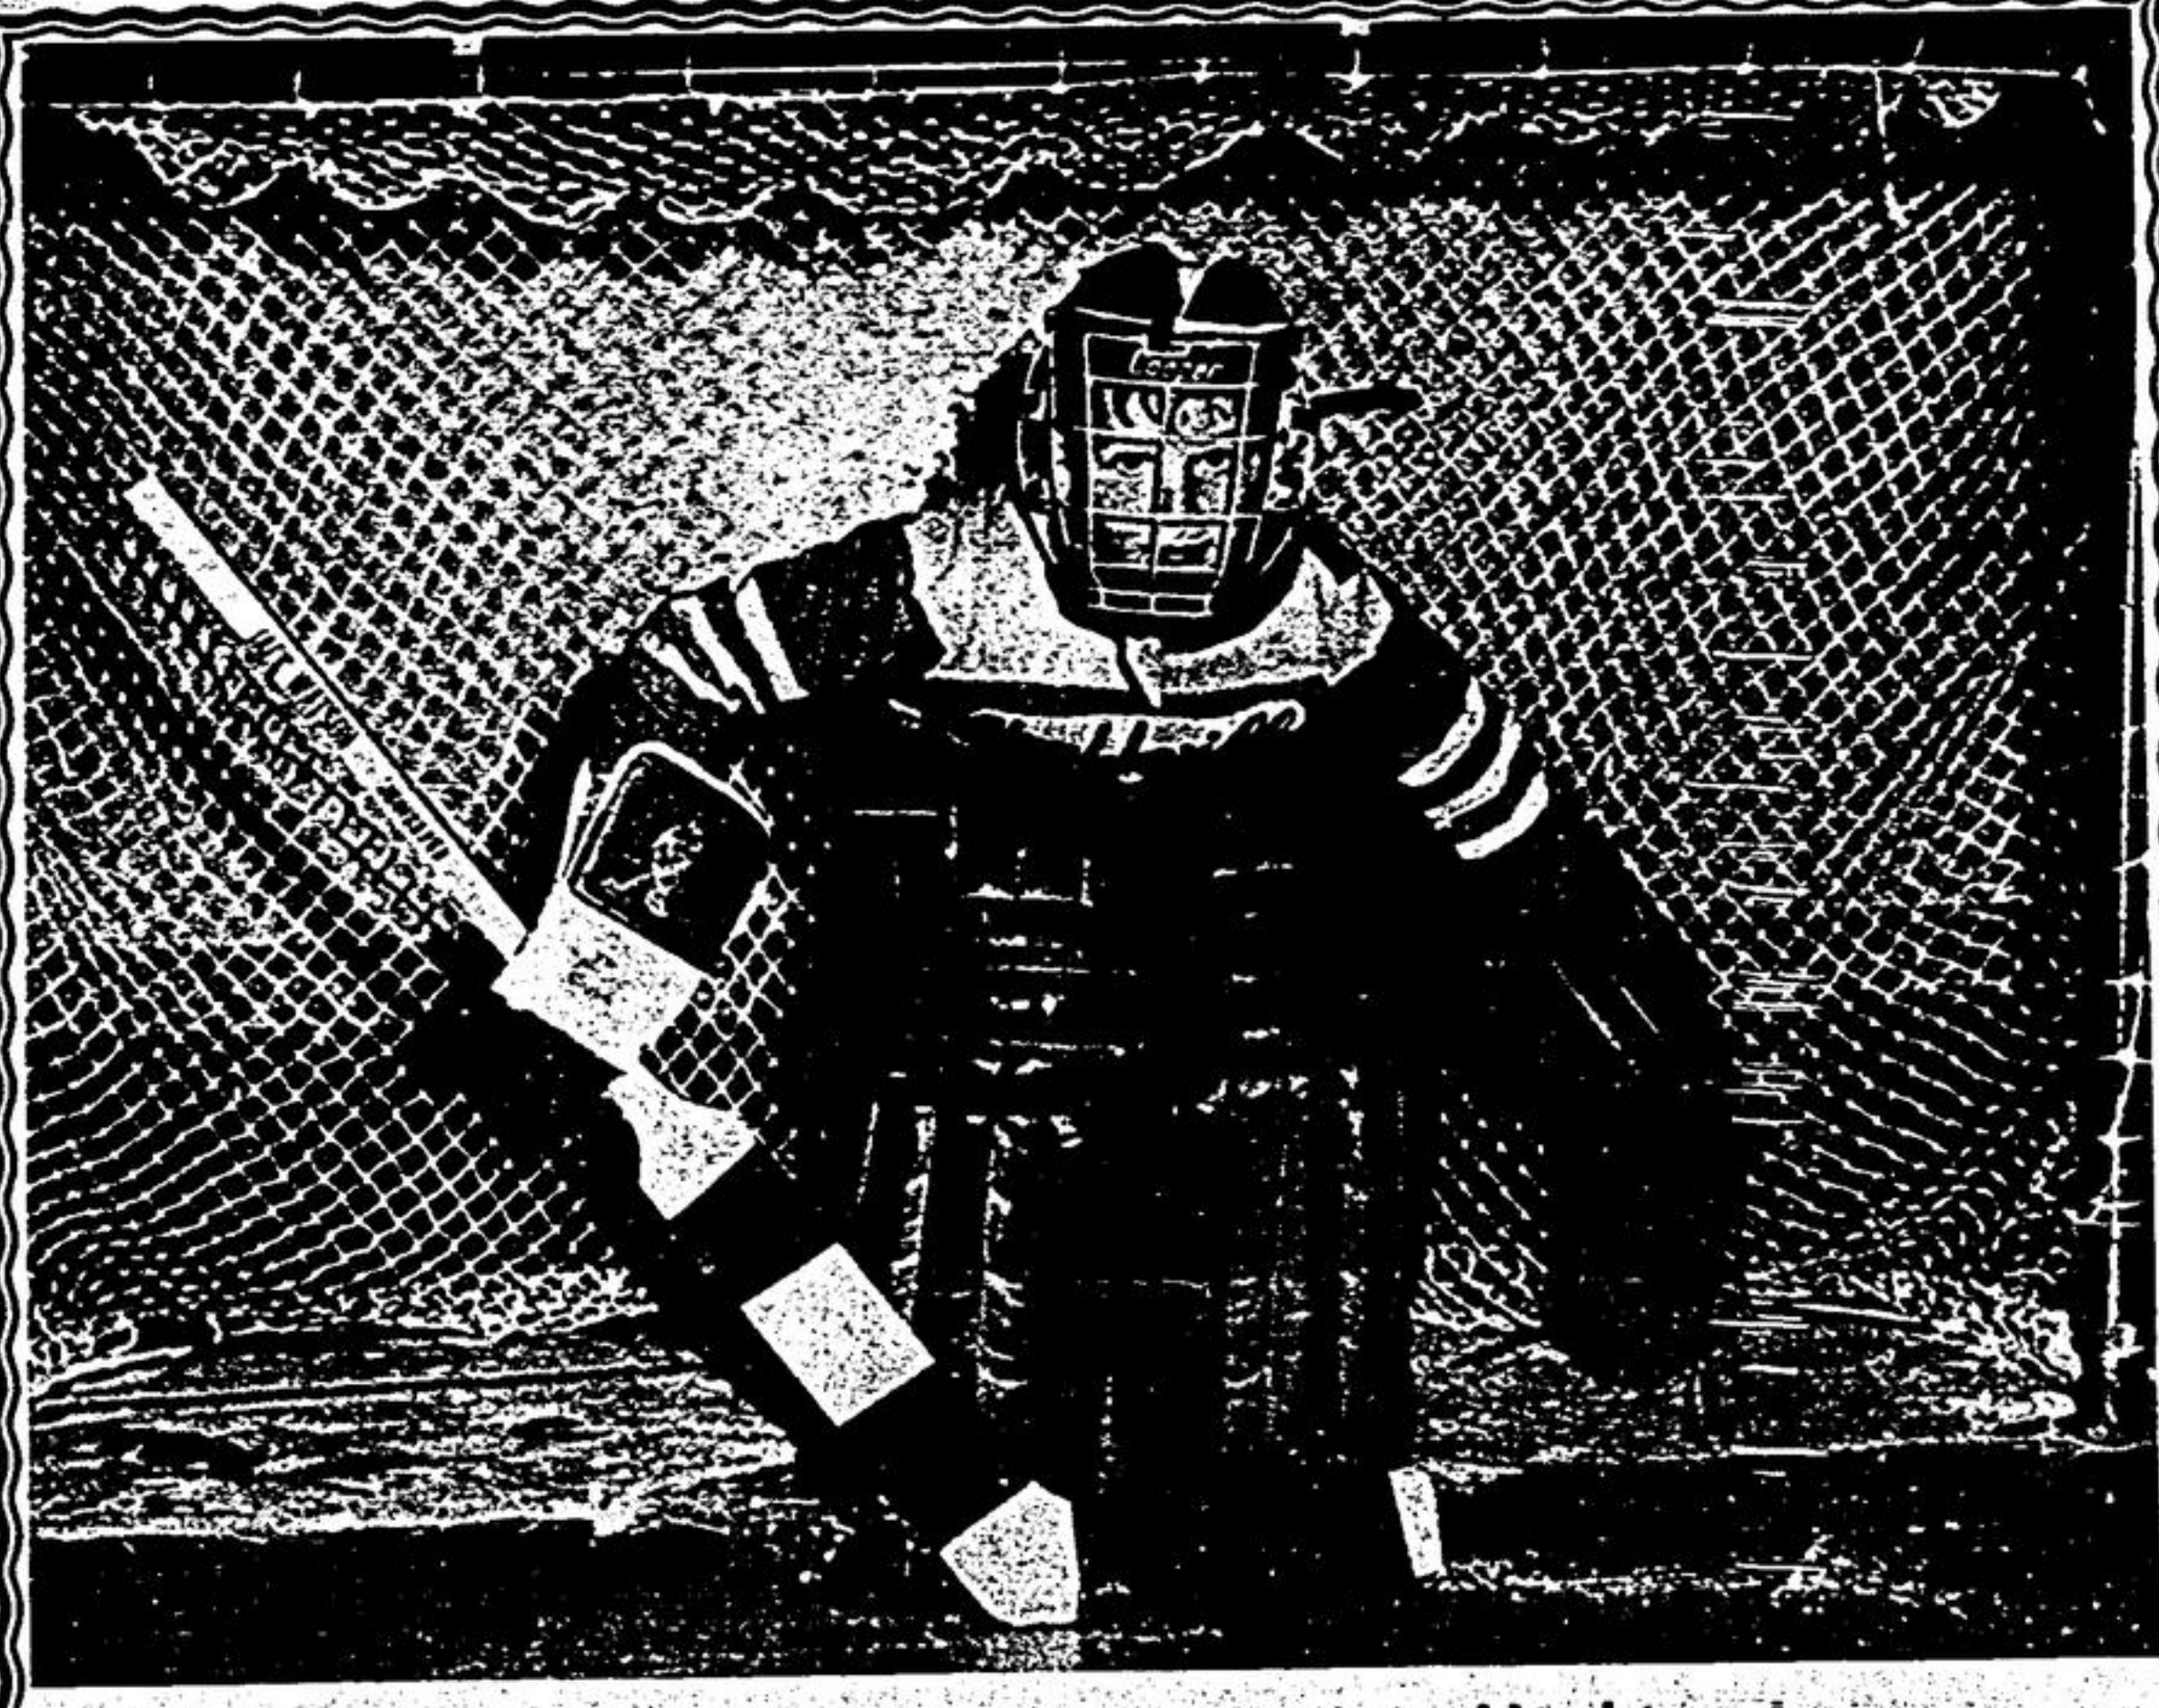

Donnie Norton fired two tallies by the 2.45 mark of the first period before John Meakes made it 3-0. Paul Curtis and Dale Beverley put the visiting squad back in the game as they changed the 0 to 2 on the board.

Once again Stouffville started fast when Bill Hassard scored at the 1.38 mark of the second stanza. Complacency set in and Wayne Catherwood netted a pair of goals and Gerald Reeve counted one. The score—5-4 for Uxbridge.

On cue, Bob Bangay breached the gap within twenty seconds of the final frame. Then the homesters watched Dale Beverley pot a pair for the out-of-towners and claim a victory.

Dale Beverley played very well and Tom Newton, a super-star in the Pee-wee league, showed considerable ability as he picked up three assists for Uxbridge.

In an earlier fixture, the Stouffville Bantams overcame a 3-0 deficit to beat Brooklin, 7-4. Bill Hassard and Mike Jones each counted twice and the other three goals were credited to Paul Brown, Bob Bangay and Don Norton.

Hockey Jackets

STOUFFVILLE—Those people wishing Stouffville Minor Hockey Association jackets are to contact Earl Crowder or Wilf Morley immediately. They need twelve people to be able to order the jackets and they have only seven requests so far. The jackets cost approximately $20.

Ev. McKay scores 311 single

STOUFFVILLE — The Tuesday Evening Legion League caters only to ladies but Ev. McKay's high single score, Dec. 3 has been bettered by very few men here this season.

She rolled a 311 flat with a 601 triple. Others over 200 were: Doris Farthing, 211 and Bettv Turner, 208.

Team standings are:
Misers, 32; Fairlaners, 30; Ding-a-Lines, 28; Swingers, 23; Jet-Set, 19; V.I.P.'s 12.

Pull goalie; Markham earns tie

MARKHAM — So often a coach pulls his goalie to salvage a tie in the dying seconds of the game. Then he stews in the juice of his strategy when it backfires. Not so at Markham, Friday, as Frank Bonello's six forwards came through to claim a 6-6 tie from the mighty Marlies in the most exciting game of the season.

From the outset there was no doubt that the Marlbros were out to topple the league leaders from their lofty perch. Four Marlboro goals later, it appeared that they were about to accomplish their mission.

With less than half of a game remaining, Markham still had yet to appear on the scoreboard. However, before the conclusion of the middle period they had counted twice and trailed 4-2.

After the Marlboros clicked at 1.50 of the final frame, the 5-2 edge looked insurmountable but the Seal-A-Wax six kept skating and fired two important goals within seven seconds of each other at the 11.12 and 11.19 mark. The Marlie mob mounted another attack and succeeded in increasing their lead by two tallies.

With less than three minutes to play, Steve Coates scored to provide a bit of hope. The visitors held on and then in the final minute of the game, Rick Johnston abandoned the net. With twenty-five seconds remaining, Steve Vickers found a loose puck. A red light flashed and over 750 fans exploded in concert.

Marlboro, Ray Ranta was in excellent form as he evaded Markham checks to score three times on passes from Bob D'Alvise. Gavin Kirk turned in a fine game for Markham and collected a pair of markers. Chris Meloff returned to the lineup and picked up three assists.

Village Ladies Lg.

STOUFFVILLE — Barb Cooper led the 7 o'clock division of the Village Ladies Bowling League with a high triple of 665. She rolled single games of 222-238 and 205.

Other top single scorers were — Barb Melhuish, 202-282; Norma Herbert, 265; Millie Willcocks, 243; Betty Allen, 207; Ann McMurray, 206; Martha Gordon, 204-201; Diane Graves, 204; Shirley Wright, 203; Bev. Coppins, 203; Mary Haynes, 201.

Team standings are: No. One, 49; Incredibles, 48; Corner Crackers, 47; No. Four, 35; No. Five, 30; No. Three, 21.

'Clippers' coast to easy win

STOUFFVILLE — Stouffville Clippers took an 8-0 decision from Woodville, Tuesday in a game that provided fewer thrills than a sewing bee.

Although the locals fired eight markers with a bit of effort, they could have doubled their output.

Al Patterson was in good form and picked up a pair of goals and two assists. Ken Aida also netted two for Stouffville. Patterson potted his pair in the first period to add to singles by Ken Aida and Ray Pipher.

In the second period Don Haynes and Robin

Hood stretched the net to make it 6-0. The fans clapped sporadically, more to restore the circulation than to applaud the quality of play.

Period three saw Ken Aida and Bob Smith blink the bulb for goals seven and eight.

Glenn Jackson was called upon seldom but he did make a few excellent saves to earn his shut-out.

The opposition next Tuesday will demand a more concerted effort if the Clippers hope to continue their winning ways. Whitby are the visitors at 8:30 p.m.
