St. Mike's upset Markham

MARKHAM — St. Michael's Junior B's came to Markham Friday to improve their third place position in the Metro standings. They succeeded by edging the Seal-A-Wax contingent 4-3 and are now closing in on the second place Marlboros.

Penalties hurt the locals badly as three of St. Mike's goals came while the blue and whites had men in the cooler. Larry Fullan was the most effective forward as he fired the first and last goals for the visitors. He had two other great opportunities to rate the hat trick but he was foiled by Rick Johnston who came up with sensational saves on several occasions.

For Markham, Steve Vickers and Rolly Kert each collected a goal and and assist and Graham Wise earned two assists. Despite constant pressure, the losers were only able to register a single tally in the initial period. Steve Vickers and Graham Wise set up Rolly Kert for the score. Larry Fullan and Paul Regan gave St. Mike's a 2-1 lead with their contributions.

Markham lacked their usual sparkle when they needed it in the second twenty minutes and except for Johnston's performance the score could have increased by four or five rather than just one for the winners. Sean McDonough widened the gap for St. Michael's before Steve Vickers connected from Rolly Kert and Graham Wise. Ron Aston made it 3-3 to end the scoring with the help of Barry Head.

Period three saw Markham pour on the power but the visitors' defensive strength was sufficient to repel the rushes. Even by vacating their net in the final minute in lieu of a sixth forward, the local team was unable to equalize Larry Fullan's winning marker.

Bangay Scores

Bantams tie Markham

STOUFFVILLE — The Stouffville Bantams rank high in the standings and Markham occupy a much lower berth but you could not prove it by the play Thursday. The 1-1 tie was quite representative of the performance.

Of the 8-2-2 record, one loss and one tie has been at the hands of Markham. The Bangay-Hassard combination was disrupted due to the latter's absence. However, Bob Bangay was one of the very few who showed any consistent drive and his efforts were rewarded with one goal.

A scoreless first period preceded a mediocre second. Except for the play of Markham's Dave Wallace who carried the puck with confidence and poise in spite of his size, and the work of Bob Bangay and Mike Jones, it was a rather drab display. Bangay's marker was set up by Kim Steckley.

The one goal lead withered in the final frame when Dave Wallace found the short side after taking a pass from Mark Swanson. Markham out-hustled the boys in the Houston Drugs sweaters and deserved the tie.

An alleged Markham goal in the second period that was not recognized by the officials could have given the visitors the edge.

If Stouffville hopes to fare well in the Bantam tournament in Markham on Boxing Day they will have to show more desire than they have in recent games. Whitby, a perennial strong contender on the Bantam scene provides the opposition at 11 a.m.

Peewees extend victory string

STOUFFVILLE — If there's a word to best describe the Stouffville Peewees' hockey ability it may be 'steady.' Not just in winning but in their general style of play as well. Nothing seems to rattle them from their usually effective offensive and defensive manoeuvres.

Port Perry suffered a 5-1 defeat as Stouffville worked away at their task, Thursday.

Once again, Don Campbell and Kevin Barrick looked good. Each contributed a pair of goals to the locals' cause.

Young Mr. Campbell lit the lamp at 3:00 of the opening period and then did an encore with help from Keith Acton, forty-five seconds later, Kevin Barrick concluded the scoring with an unassisted effort.

Period two saw Kevin Barrick count his second unassisted marker while team mate Mike Wightman occupied the penalty box.

Port Perry reduced the margin to make it 4-1.

Goals were at a premium in the final stanza. The only marksman was Bill Roberts for Stouffville. Keith Acton picked up his second assist.

The winners will not play another scheduled home game until Jan. 9.

Goalie earns shutout

STOUFFVILLE — Hunt's Sunoco of the Bantam League, inspired by the great goaltending of Tim Radford, handed the league-leading Pine Hill Auto a 3-0 drubbing. For the Pine Hill crew it was their first defeat of the season.

Fires four goals

STOUFFVILLE — David Campbell came up with his second four-goal performance of the season to lead Schell Lumber to a convincing 7-3 win over Aida Cleaners in Mite action. Paul Jackson opened the scoring for Schell's and then David took over to score four consecutive goals. Keith McGuckin rounded off the scoring the game. Norm Hetherington picked up one assist for Schell Lumber. Aida Cleaners got their scoring from Bill Housser with a pair and Nick Bangay with a goal and an assist.

Steve Schell Stars Consolidated Sand and Gravel doubled the count on Becker's Milk and skated away with a 4-2 win. Steve Schell led the Stonemen picking up 4 points on three goals and an assist. John Christie notched the fourth goal and Doug Sanders earned one assist. For Becker's it was Donnie Hodgson and Mark Hellivell both unassisted.

Fires Three Weldon Shoes picked up two more points when they bombed Lehman Shoes 6-3. Billy Benson had a hat-trick for the winners while Dale Knabb picked up two goals and two assists. Glenn Newmarche fired the sixth goal and Nigel French earned an assist. Jimmy Cadieux banged in goals for Lehman's and Tommy Lehman scored once.

Stouffville Lions, because of the Pine Hill defeat tied for first place when they defeated the Altona Feeds 3-1. The Lions got goals from Frank Hill,

Resolutions For The New Year

This is the time of year for pledges. The cynics may say that pledges have a tendency to become more recited than practised and good intentions to become forgotten.

They're right, of course. In our human failings we all fall short of perfection. But it is the striving to be better than we are that keeps our society continually improving. Here is a list of pledges we'd recommend to any business man as we strive ourselves to live up to them:

- "Reputations will continue to be made by many acts lost by one..."
- "Performance will continue to outsell promises..."
- "Business will continue to go where invited and remain where appreciated..."
- "Givers will become the best go-getters..."
- "People will go right on preferring to do business with friends..."
- "Know-how will surpass guess-how..."
- "Trust, not tricks, will keep customers loyal..."
- "Enthusiasm will continue to be as contagious as ever..."
- "Quality will be prized as a precious possession..."
- "And as anyone who has driven it knows, the extra mile has no traffic jams..."
- "May you and yours have a happy and prosperous New Year."
