Thos. N. Shea APPOINTMENT

Thos. N. Shea is pleased to announce the appointment of William Jackson to the position of Mortgage Manager of the company. Mr. Jackson was previously Manager of the Markham branch of the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce. He will be directly responsible for the development of the firm's new Mortgage Department and will be located in the Head Office in Markham. Mr. Jackson's experience in the financial field will enable the company to provide competent service to residents of the area. The firm has recently expanded its Head Office building and made special provision to accommodate the collection, processing and administration of the newly created division. A number of associations have been established with leading financial institutions and currently substantial funds are available for first and second mortgage loans. The Mortgage Department represents an important segment in the company's development of a fully integrated program which will shortly include both an appraisal and property management division.
