Stouffville couple Win trip to Las Vegas

STOUFFVILLE— The word "surprise" can be described as a telephone call saying that you have just won an all-expenses-paid trip to Las Vegas.

It happened to Mrs. Luella Reeks, Baker Avenue, Stouffville. A secretary with the law firm of Button and Armstrong, Main Street East. Mrs. Reeks received the good news Friday evening. The caller was a representative of Markham Volkswagen where she and her husband had only recently purchased a new car. They automatically became eligible for the grand prize.

"I remember that there was something said about it, but I never gave it any more thought," said Mrs. Reeks in conversation with The Tribune.

Mr. and Mrs. Reeks will leave March 2 and return March 6. They will stay at the Hotel Riviera with all expenses paid. "We are certainly looking forward to the trip," she said. "I may even try my luck at the Casino. Who knows. I may even win a few thousand."

Since the ticket is good for two, Mr. and Mrs. Reeks will leave their three children at home. Their holiday will come later.

Mrs. Nelson Smith, conc. 7, Markham, entertained at a miscellaneous shower Feb. 14 for Miss Wenda Burrows of Markham. Friends and relatives were present from Goodwood, Queensville, Scarborough, Bobcaygeon and Cobocok. Her marriage to Mr. Bill Hoover will take place early in March.

Church Parade
All members of the Stouffville Scouts, Cubs, Guides and Brownies will attend service in the Stouffville United Church, Sunday evening at 7 p.m.

Mrs. Jim McKean, her daughter, Mrs. Glennys Emmerson and Jamie, formerly of Stouffville, visited Monday with Mrs. Jean Thomas, Rupert Avenue.

Thos. Lang of the "Lang Service" is completing major renovations to the front of his paint and wallpaper store on Main Street.

Break-in
A Fina gas station, Hwy. 47 was entered recently. Constable Tom Wauhope arrested two 15 year old youths from St. Johns Training School, Uxbridge. The youths were attempting to steal a car from the garage.
