MUSSELMAN'S LAKE
 Mr. and Mrs. Eric Birch, formerly of Ringwood, have moved to Shalimar Restaurant at Musselman's Lake. Early this month they bought Shalimar privately from Mr. and Mrs. Frank Saxby of Valley Road. The Birch family emigrated from Berkshire, England only two years ago. For the past year they operated Ringwood Snack Bar for Mr. Frank Wills, a relative. At Ringwood Mrs. Birch was known as "Ma Birch" because of her broad British accent. Mr. and Mrs. Birch have two children, Jacqueline, 12 and Brian, 21. Jacqueline will continue to attend Dickson Hill School until Easter when she will transfer to the school at Ballantrae. The Ladies Auxiliary of the Whitechurch Centennial Centre will hold its next meeting at the Centre March 3 at 8 p.m. The drawing up of a charter will be the featured item on the agenda. Birthday wishes are extended to Miss Lee Inslay, age 9 and Patrick Cashman Jr., age 12. Both youngsters celebrated with parties Saturday. The youngsters toasted marshmallows by firelight. Mrs. Darlene Graham, Mary Davidson and Jeny Henderson organized and supervised the party. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Watt of Churchill Drive celebrated their 51st wedding anniversary Feb. 11. On Friday they drove their new car to Cookstown to visit Mr. and Mrs. Russell Draper.
