Breaks arm in kitchen fall

By Eleanor Todd
GOODWOOD — Dora Monsma had an unfortunate accident Saturday. She slipped and fell in her kitchen and suffered a broken left arm near the wrist. Her arm will be in a cast for several weeks.

The ladies of Goodwood U.C.W. held their Irish Stew Supper in the United Church basement Mar. 19. If you forgot to go you missed, not only the bargain of the year, but a meal every bit as good as the ones mother used to prepare. The baked potatoes and stew were so delicious that I couldn't resist a second helping. Then I took the largest piece of lemon pie on the plate, and when I finished, Ab Taylor dared me to eat another. Nobody was looking so I did. At our table, only Aylmer Hood's appetite surpassed mine. I do hope the ladies have another next year.

Our neighbor, Mrs. Norman Maye celebrated her 77th birthday Mar. 17.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Savage have purchased a home at Musselman's Lake and are now in the process of moving.

All the mothers in Goodwood are busy chasing the sand out of the house this week after fighting a losing battle last week when the kids were home from school. At the beginning of the week, the ditches were overflowing. One little boy named David even went for a brief swim — fully clothed.

Keep in mind the April meeting of the Goodwood Women's Institute when the election of officers will take place.
