Greenwood United Church

Easter service well attended

By Betty Pegg
GREENWOOD — A large congregation attended the Easter service in Greenwood United Church with Rev. Fleetham delivering an inspiring address. The choir rendered two appropriate anthems. The interior was beautifully decorated with Easter lillies.

Friends are sorry to learn that Mr. Dennis Owen has been returned to Oshawa Hospital and at the time of writing is in intensive care. Mr. Owen has started back to work after a stay in Scarborough Hospital. His many friends wish him a quick recovery.

Doug Morden and Mrs. Percy Clark were winners at the euchre, April 3. Mrs. Howard Stell had the most lone hands. The next euchre is April 18.

Mrs. Fred Byers and Mrs. Cole had dinner on Good Friday with Mrs. Norman Wilson, Stouffville.

Mr. Fred Byers, Fairview Lodge, spent Easter Sunday with Mrs. Byers and Mr. and Mrs. Doug Morden and family.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Robertson had Mr. and Mrs. David Robertson and daughter of Ajax; Mrs. Robertson's father of Nova Scotia and Terry Robertson of Ajax for Easter Sunday dinner.

Mrs. G. Griffin and John entertained Mr. and Mrs. Walker of Goodwood, Easter Sunday.

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Hicks were — Mr. and Mrs. James Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Smith of Tillsonburg with their families and Mrs. Floyd Malcolm, Guelph.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Henning and family had Sunday dinner with Mrs. McLean and Beatrice. Mr. Kenzie Messer of Kingston spent the Easter weekend with his parents. Unit 1 of the U.C.W. met at the home of Mrs. McLean with a good attendance. The program and worship were taken by Mrs. W. A. Brown. The next meeting is at the home of Mrs. Milton Pegg, May 1.

Unit 3 of the U.C.W. met at the home of Mrs. Ernie Trimble. Mrs. Donald Goodwin conducted the program and worship. Mrs. Messer was in charge of the business.

Organize Buttonville baby-sitting service

By Jean Leaf

BUTTONVILLE — The Brown's Corners Young People are launching a baby-sitting service and part-time labor force with proceeds to the community and the church. If you need a baby-sitter, call Susan Venus (297-1192); Lynn Carruthers (297-2760) or Lynda Sanderson (887-5519). For part-time help, call Rodney Venus (297-1192) or Bruce Cowie (887-5543) or John Ball (8871 5647).

Congratulations to Bob Oakes and Barbara Dale Jewett who will be married April 19, at St. Andrew's United Church, Markham. Bob is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Oakes and Barbara's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jewett of Markham. On Thursday evening, Mrs. John Wilkins entertained the bride-to-be at a miscellaneous shower. Guests were friends and neighbors of the Oakes' family.

Another bride-to-be at Brown's Corners Church is Vicki Grant whose marriage takes place May 31. Mr. and Mrs. John Donald have returned home from Florida.

Wesley Fierheller will supervise shop classes at the new senior public school, Mark 11, at Unionville which will open in September.

Miss Grace Rodick attended a convention in Las Vegas.

Mrs. S. J. English is making good progress and expects to return home from hospital shortly.

There were two fine Easter services at Brown's Corners Church. On Good Friday Rev. Dugan preached on "The Mob Scene," taking a trip back in time to the events leading up to Calvary. He was assisted in the Children's Story by Lynn, Brian and Laurie Carr, Randy Bishop and Pamela Felgate. The senior choir, with Mrs. Don Reesor at the organ sang "Oh Sacred Head Now Wounded." On Easter Day Rev. W. S. Butt assisted Mr. Dugan during the service. New collars for members of the junior and senior choirs were dedicated in a ceremony conducted by Rev. Chris Dugan. They were presented by Mrs. Eleanor Webster and family in memory of her son Brett. Mrs. Harold Steffler and Miss Regina Allen represented senior and junior choirs assisted Mr. Dugan.

The Venus family spent Easter weekend at Montreal.

The York Central Hospital Auxiliary (Buttonville Branch) will benefit from a sale of baking and gifts plus a euchre party at Buttonville W.I. Hall, April 11. Sale of goods is at 7.30 p.m. and play begins at 8.30 p.m.

Minor softball meeting

GOODWOOD — Last year's travelling problems and early starts dampened the spirits of many players, coaches, and fans alike and there is considerable doubt as to whether the Goodwood Minor Softball Association will be in operation this season. Members have called a meeting for Tuesday, April 15 at 8.00 in the township hall to discuss all problems and to consider the possibility of forming a house league within the township.

All interested parents as well as softball enthusiasts from other areas of the township are invited to attend.
