

Claremont beaten in three straight games by Ayr

UXBRIDGE — With three seconds still to play, the centre surface of the Uxbridge Arena resembled an orgy of confusion comparable to the conclusion of a heavyweight wrestling match. There were as many people on the ice as players.

It was Ayr vs Claremont in the third game of the Ontario rural semi-finals. The visitors led 5-3 and the outcome was obvious. But the officials, in a determined bid to see the contest through to the end, restored order out of chaos and dropped the puck. Ayr now advances to the title series, likely against Wainfleet.

A crowd of 824 persons, including most of Claremont plus three bus loads from Ayr, taxed the accommodation of the rink to see what was billed as a 'fight' to the finish. There were fights alright but the brand of hockey put up by both clubs far exceeded any excitement aroused by the pugilists. It was a thrilling encounter, the result of which remained in doubt until mid-way through the third period when the visitors extended their margin to two goals. Claremont outshot their rivals 30 to 28.

Ayr, with a classy skating crew, used the long forward pass to good advantage, giving them several clean-cut breakaways on the Claremont net. Claremont led 3-2 until 9:07 of the second when Don Schaefer rapped in the tying tally, his second of the night. Bob Botterberg potted a pair for the winners and Jim Brown notched one. For Claremont, it was Wayne Redshaw with two and Willard Peddie, one.

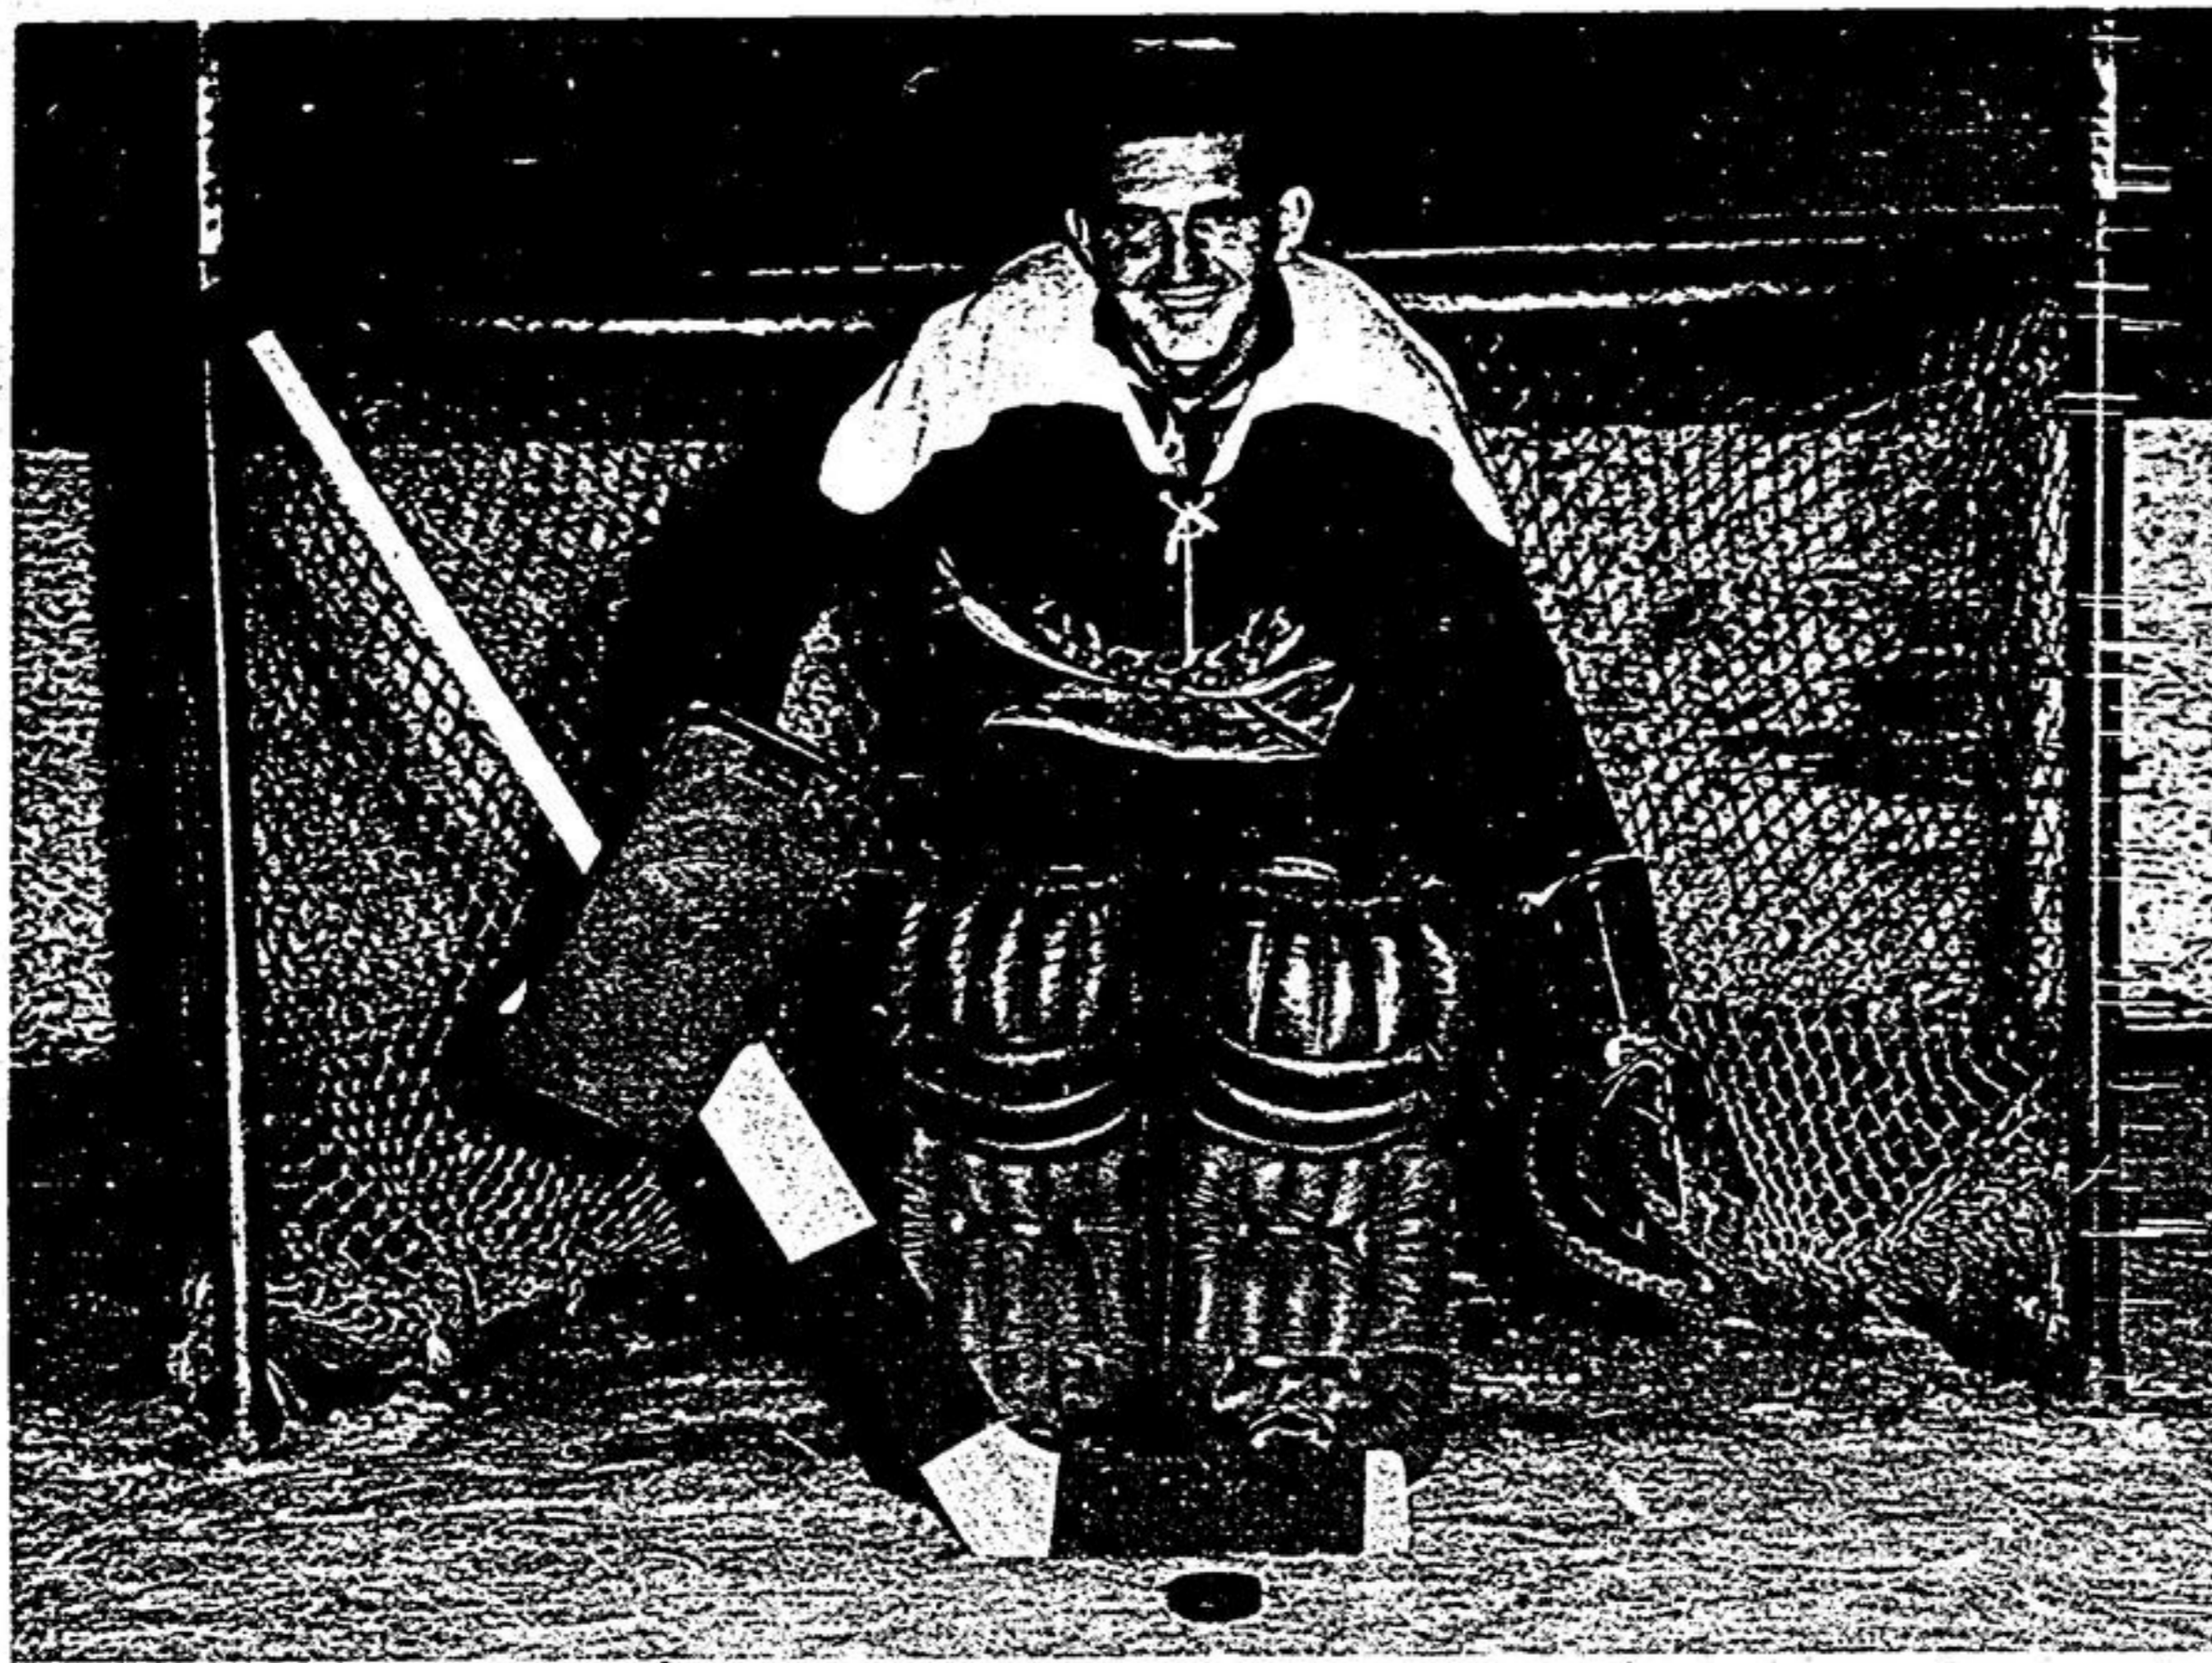

Although held off the score sheet, Dean Evans played well. He had several good chances but each time was foiled by Ron Gehman between the pipes for Ayr.

In the defensive department, the most crushing check of the game was handed out by Ayr's solid rearguard Reid Bignall. He met Wayne Redshaw head-on and sent him crashing into the ice. The speedy Claremont forward returned to the fray only to be hit again by Bignall. The latter was banished with a two-minute kneeling penalty and Redshaw departed to the dressing room.

Except for a confrontation between Claremont's Ted Redshaw and a still-to-be-determined adversary, the physical violence was restrained. The officials were in complete control throughout.

Mid-way through the second period, Ron James of Claremont and Arnie Churchill of Ayr engaged in a shoving match and verbal exchange that threatened to involve several pro-Ayr fans. Police moved in and order was quickly restored.

The Claremont lineup included — Earl Pilkey, Howard Malcolm, Ted Redshaw, Wayne Redshaw, Willard Peddie, Ron James, Bob Lehman, Dean Evans, Jack Redshaw, Tom Benson, Larry Vernon, Keith Stewart, Bob Hall, Joe Taylor and Art Maxwell.

Earl Pilkey, a veteran of many hockey wars, guarded the goal for Claremont in the season's final game against Ayr, Friday night. He blocked a total of 28 shots in his club's 5-3 loss. Ayr swept the semi-finals in three straight.

Tournament finals

CLAREMONT — Two Claremont teams were among 48 entries in the Legion Ladies Auxiliary (Eastern Region) Bowling Tournament at Peterborough Mar. 29.

Team No. 1 captained by Agnes Ferguson rolled up a point total of 3,319 for three games.

They will now advance to the Ontario finals in Hamilton, Apr. 26. Members include: Mrs. Ferguson, Amy Clark, Marge Samarillo, Lil MacGregor, Lenora McKenzie and Rene Rennie.

At the reception that followed, individual silver trays were presented to each of the winners by the regional sports officer, Mary Desjardines.

The team also received a large trophy which will be kept in Claremont for one year.

Amy Clark brought further honor to Claremont by posting the high triple of 743.

The tournament hosted 288 bowlers.

Runners-up to Claremont were: Onemee and Norwood.

Claremont's No. 2 team under captain Helen Pascoe didn't fare quite so well. Other members were: Doris Hopkins, Valerie Budd, Mary Ingram, Myrtle McConkey and Josephine DeRusha.

In addition to Claremont, nine other teams will compete for the Provincial championship.
