

Pioneer history to be part of Century City

By Eleanor Todd
GOODWOOD — Roger Cunningham, Development Manager of Revenue Properties Limited has indicated the firm's interest in preserving the history of the community in the form of street and place names for Century City. Mr. Cunningham is seeking information on pioneer families and buildings that he feels should be incorporated into the city's plan. The assistance of local residents is requested.

On Wednesday, May 21, the Goodwood BP Intermediates played their first ball game of the season in Goodwood Park, and soundly defeated their opponents, Uxbridge. It was of the fifth inning when a close game until the top Uxbridge put 2 men on bases with none out. Goodwood's pitcher, Larry Bishop, very calmly swung out the next 3 batters and goodwood couldn't do anything wrong after that. They scored 6 runs in their next turn at bat. The game ended with a score of 12 to 5. Ball fans please note that our Intermediates will be playing regularly in the park every Wednesday throughout the summer and the Bantams will play Thursday. Nora Greer is organizing a girls' team and they will probably play Fridays, while Monday and Tuesday are reserved for the Midgets and Squirts.

The Ontario North District Womens' Institute held their 59th Annual Meeting in Goodwood United Church on Wednesday, May 21 from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. The guest speaker was Dr. Eric Sisel of Markham whose topic was "Discrimination".

The community was saddened to learn of the death of Mrs. William Maye, a long-time resident of our area. She had been in failing health for several years.

Rev. and Mrs. V. I. Thormin drove to Richmond, Quebec to get their youngest daughter, Beth, who had been student teaching there for two weeks. Beth has since graduated from Macdonald Teachers' College in St. Anne de Bellevue, Quebec. She will be spending the summer with her parents in Goodwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Bell are enjoying a visit with their son David and his family from Kimberley, British Columbia.

Jeff and Yvonne Mathews are the new neighbors in the house vacated by Keith and Judy Stewart and family. When Jeff and Yvonne first came out to Goodwood to see the house, they thought they'd look up some old friends who had moved to the Uxbridge area earlier. They drove on to Uxbridge only to find via the phone book, that their friends had a Goodwood address, so they drove back. Would you believe? Their friends, Robert and Joan Cudlip, live in the house across the road from their new home.

Mr. Greg McQuaker is now in Uxbridge Cottage Hospital for therapy to correct his problem with balance which arose after he suffered a stroke in mid-April. He is in room no. 106.

It would seem that we have another flu bug loose in the village. It has been mostly hit and miss so far, but Barb and Gary St. John and their children became ill together and spent a very uncomfortable weekend.

Next Sunday, June 1, is Anniversary Sunday at Goodwood Baptist Church. Rev. Benny Jones will be the guest speaker at both morning and evening services. Mr. Postma will be singing at the morning service and a quartet will provide the music in the evening.

Worship service - 20th century style

By Jean Leaf
BUTTONVILLE — The words were old and familiar but the 20th century tunes gave hymns new meaning when the Youth Group conducted the service at Brown's Corners United Church, Sunday. Participants included — junior choir members, Cheryl Tennyson and Christopher Hood in a lovely duet; the call to worship and invocation by Debbie Mitchell, Bible readings by Gordon Hooper, David Bishop and Sharon Buchanan and the junior choir under the direction of Mrs. George Hooper. Organists were — Mrs. Reg

Crawford and John Stewart. Next Sunday, June 1 at 11 a.m., the service of worship will include the ordination to eldership of two young men of the congregation: Rae Donaldson and Arthur Hewitt.

Congratulations to Dr. George Kelly who celebrated his 81st birthday May 23. The family celebrated the event Sunday. Dr. Kelly took a few days off to recuperate from his recent accident but returned two weeks ago to his duties as veterinarian of animals at the Stouffville Sales Barn.

Davidson of Stouffville was guest speaker. Mrs. Marguerite Jones was guest soloist. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Russell Boyington, Mrs. Rose Brodie and Mrs. Wm. McGimpsey. Mrs. Lloyd Baker, chairing her first meeting as president for the 1969-70 term paid tribute to past president, Miss Cora Brodie for her leadership over the past three years.

We were sorry to learn that Ted and Ellen Gough's daughter Wendy has been ill.

Our sincere sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thomson of Unionville whose son Bruce died suddenly Friday. Service was held Tuesday from the Dixon Funeral Home.
