Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hall

Ceremony unites popular couple

LOCUST HILL—Baskets of white gladioli, orange carnations, white and yellow daisies formed a pretty setting in Locust Hill United Church for the wedding of Betty Jeanne Tran and Robert Richard Hall, June 7, 1969.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. G. B. McNeill at 2:30 p.m. Miss Blanche Raymer presided at the organ and accompanied the soloist, Miss Cathy Rowlands, who sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Wedding Prayer".

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. Tran, R.R.2 Claremont, and the groom the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hall, Goodwood.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a floor-length sleeveless gown of white silk crepe with high neckline in the empire style with matching short-sleeve coat, the back of which fell into a full cathedral train with daisy trim. Her headpiece was a daisy flower ring with shoulder-length veil and she carried a cascade of yellow and orange roses with white daisies.

Hilda Jones was maid of honor and Carolyn Williams and Cathy Tran were bridesmaids for their sister. Another sister, Christine Tran and Janet Williams, the bride's niece, were flowergirls. They wore floor-length orange ice empire style gowns with lace trimmed bodice and short sleeves. The bow at the back of the neckline held a floor-length panel with lace trim at hemline. Their headpieces were matching bows and they carried nosegays of white daisies and orange carnations. The bridesmaids wore pearl necklaces and the flower girls: sterling silver lockets, gifts of the bride.

Roy Lewis, R.R.3 Stouffville, was the best man and the ushers were Gordon McDowell and Robert Tran, brother of the bride. Their gift from the groom was sterling silver cuff links and tie tacks.

For the reception held in the Stouffville Masonic Hall, the bride's mother received the guests in an aqua blue crepe street-length dress with lace over shoulders and sleeves with panel and bow trim at back. She wore aqua blue accessories and a yellow rose corsage. The groom's mother assisted in a street-length dress of lilac crepe with lace overdress and navy accessories. She wore a pink rose corsage.

The bride chose a turquoise coat and dress ensemble with white accessories and a white orchid corsage for travelling to Eastern Ontario.

The happy couple are making their home at R.R.3, Claremont.

Prior to their marriage, showers were given by Hilda Jones, members of the Rebekah Lodge, Atha Community, Goodwood Community, Helen Lewis and Carol McDowell, Muriel Coulson and Helen Maxwell.

Miss Linda Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wright, Baker Avenue, was the picture of a lovely June bride, Saturday in a ceremony conducted by Rev. James L. Carder in the Stouffville United Church. The groom, Mr. Eldon Wagg, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Wagg, Cemetery Lane. The happy couple left on a honeymoon trip to Florida.

Mr. Wilbert Gower of Bloomington is presently a patient in Newmarket Hospital, following surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rutherford, Stouffville R.R.1, have purchased a new home on Second St. from C. H. Nolan. The house was built by John Williamson of Markham. Mr. Rutherford has sold his farm on the 10th of Markham.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurie Lovnes, Main Street West, were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Stafford and family, Stouffville Street.

Mr. Rick Kelly of Weston was a weekend guest of Mr. George Thistel, Glengall Lane.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn R. Thompson, Lisa and Peter of Brampton spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Thompson, Albert Street North.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Vaughan, Main Street West, visited Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Otto Tranter, R.R.2 Stouffville. Mr. and Mrs. Tranter celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Seymour and family, (Rupert Avenue, spent the weekend on Isabela Island at the cottage of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Robertson and family of Weston, to help celebrate the 40th wedding anniversary of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Somerton of Scarborough.

Miss Janet Spence, Glad Park Avenue, is enjoying a vacation trip through parts of the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wideman, Elm Road, visited on Sunday with their daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Neale Sider and children, Wellandport.

Miss Bernetta Galley of Welland has been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vanzant and Mr. Gordon Baker and family, Church Street North.

Academic, athletic and attendance awards will be presented to students of Orchard Park Public School at a ceremony Thursday (tonight) in the auditorium of Stouffville Dist. Secondary School. The public is invited.
