

Janet Craig European traveller

By Jean Leal
BUTTONVILLE — Janet Craig is keeping her parents posted on her travels abroad. Last week's letter was from Stratford-On-Avon, and previously, there were accounts of her visits to Ireland, Wales, Yorkshire, and Inverness, the home of her great grandfather Fraser.

Christine Cragie is home from a holiday at Camp Big Canoe, the United Church (York Presbytery) camp in Muskoka. This week, Nancy Armstrong is vacationing there.

Mrs. Alastair Young has been in St. Michael's Hospital. We wish her a quick recovery. The young family planned a trip home to Nova Scotia this summer, but it will be delayed until Mrs. Young is better.

Welcome to the Brown family who have moved into the former Pratt home. Since they arrived in Buttonville earlier this summer, their daughter Michelle had been married and they have been visited by relatives from Windsor. Mr. Brown is employed at the airport.

Mrs. S. J. English's niece, Miss Margaret Grey, spent a day or two at Braedon last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Armstrong have had Mrs. Armstrong's mother, Mrs. Kane as a guest from Scotland. Last weekend Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs. Kane and Derek left for a brief trip to New York, and a visit to Neil who is working at a lodge in the Catskills.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Miller were guests at a post-wedding dinner at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Waterston, when they entertained for their daughter Pamela and her new husband Brian Jones. Afterward, the bridal couple left for a trip to England and Europe.

Bill Robinson has returned from a trip west to Vancouver and the island with Rev. and Mrs. Wm. Askew. On his return journey he visited the Stampede.

Mr. Clarence Scott left recently for a trip west, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Denby plan to leave shortly to revisit Kirkland Lake and points in the west where Mr. Denby once lived and worked.

Rev. W. S. Butt conducted the service at Brown's Corners United Church on Sunday morning, in the absence of Rev. Chris Dugan, and John Stewart was organist, relieving Mrs. Don Reesor. Next Sunday Rev. J. Bradley Cruyton, B.A., B.D., will be the guest speaker.
