Mr. and Mrs. Francis Lye Honeymoon trip to Bahamas

STOUFFVILLE—The interior of Stouffville United Church was beautifully decorated with baskets of yellow and white gladioli, carnations and daisies for the wedding May 31, 1969, of Yvette Joan Malloy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Malloy Stouffville, and Francis Lye, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Lye, also of Stouffville.

Rev. James L. Carder officiated at the ceremony. Given in marriage by her father, the bride looked lovely in a white lace floor-length gown over peau de soie, with long sleeves and lace train that flowed from the shoulders. She carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds, white carnations and gypsophila.

Mrs. Marlene MacDonald of Newmarket, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Her floor-length gown was of mauve lace over taffeta. She carried a nosegay of yellow and white carnations.

Mr. Leslie Lye of Scarborough was best man for his brother, Mr. Ross Phelps, Stouffville, was organist.

For the reception, held in the Legion Hall, Stouffville, the bride's mother received the guests wearing a lilac lace dress with matching hat and white accessories. The groom's mother chose a pink lace dress over beige taffeta with matching hat and pink accessories.

For travelling on a three-week honeymoon trip to the Barbados, the bride selected a white dress with yellow accessories. The happy couple are now residing in Scarborough.
