Markham wins meet

STOUFFVILLE — "Much better than we ever expected," was the comment of the coach of the Stouffville Competitive Swim Team, Kathryn Hambly, after the local club lost to Markham by a score of 190-153. This was Stouffville's first meet in several years and most of the local swimmers had never been in competition before.

Bolstering the Stouffville showing were: Norm Christie, Frank Steele, Bruce Johnston, Gail Newmarch, Jim Wilson, Jeff Aiken, Tom McFadden, Lloyd Johnston and Derek Gresham, all coming through with first place finishes in their events. First to cross the finish line in their events for Markham were: Bonnie Wilson, Colin Worth, Nora Blair, Karen Crombie, Steve Harlow, Debbie Lawrence, Robby Brown, Carol Brown and Scott Harlow.

Other Stouffville point getters were Ernie Schroeder, Debbie Dedlow, Charmaine Steele, Susan Steckley, John McFadden, Dave Christie, Rose Marie Tremblay and Joan Wilson.

For Markham, Brian Crombie, Jane Cunningham, Kevin Keogh, Frank Harlow, Chris Claridge, Nancy Cunningham, Tim Claridge, Maureen Unsworth, Libby Brown, Dave Crombie, Wendy Sine, Rodney Sine and Dave Unsworth brought in additional points.

Stouffville's recreation director, Jim Hill told The Tribune that he hopes that more Stouffville area swimmers will become interested in the sport of competitive swimming. There are still openings on the team, and anyone can join.

Errors prove costly

VICTORIA SQUARE — Cries of "get a handle on that ball" and "sew up those gloves" rang out from the stands as Victoria Square downed Markham by an 11-8 score. If the Expos could have had a handle, they would have won the game. Five of the Square's runs were scored on errors with Roger Brain reaching home twice on bad throws to third.

John Rumble, and Richard Burton made home when Dave Rumble reached second on a Markham goof. Dave Rumble and Paul Rivers scored when Barry Andrews belted out a home run.

Larry Kelson touched all the sacks for Victoria Square's remaining tally.

The Expos lay dormant until the fifth when they came through with five runs. Ken Aird, Brooke Wheelan, Paul Lynn, Harry Ellis, and Dave Gurnell scored in succession. John Young and Sheldon Adams rounded off Markham's scoring.

Richard Burton allowed the Expos 12 safeties. Rick Crispi on the hill for Markham, gave up sixteen.

Stouffville bows to Dunbarton

DUNBARTON — No one beats Dunbarton in their home park. Such was the case this week as over 100 cheering fans, one of the largest crowds seen so far this season, urged the home team to a 7-2 victory over Stouffville.

The Page Boys just couldn't get rolling. "It's a tough park to play in," commented several of the Stouffville players. Only Bruce Fockler and Graeme Goodchild were able to make the full circuit.

For Dunbarton, Wes Lambert was around twice. Bob Bates, Terry Tilson, Pete Herrod, Danny Dechen, and Dave Russell tagged all the sacks.

Bob Parish started on the mound for Stouffville, with Don Lee taking over in the fourth. The pair gave up 11 hits.

Hurling for Dunbarton, Bill Mitchum allowed the Page Boys 10 safeties.

THE AIR CONDITIONING REVOLUTION
When an option becomes so popular that a used car becomes difficult to sell without it, that option is here to stay.
It happened with automatic transmission. Now it is happening with air conditioning.
Auto industry economists are predicting that this year, factory installed air conditioning will be on 50 percent of all domestic cars produced. That's a gain of 35 percent over last year and last year was up 38 percent from the year before.
The one thing holding air conditioning back from the widespread acceptance of automatic shift is the cost ($550 to $550). But used car sales auction figures now show that about 60 percent of the new price is returned to the buyer on a two year old car.
Not only are used car buyers willing to pay additional for "air," but a car equipped with the option sells much more readily than one without. In some areas of the southern U.S., air conditioning on a used car is a must unless the car sells at a sacrifice price.
If you decide to equip your car with air conditioning, one precaution is in order: The mechanism is a specialty that requires specially trained mechanics and special equipment. For the sake of your future satisfaction, be sure your dealer is capable and willing to supply this service.
